

MASTERING YOUR MIND

WE ARE WHO WE THINK WE ARE

DENIM RICHARDS

Mastering Your Mind

For as long as I can remember, I have always loved sitting in silence and listening to my thoughts! When I was younger I would talk to myself aloud just so I could clearly hear the things that I was thinking and praying about. In my life like anyone, I have struggled with depression, anxiety, and self-worth concerns, until one day I got sick and tired of feeling sick and tired. So I decided to do something about it! I wanted to understand the things made me feel depressed and anxious – oddly enough it was primarily coming from the pressure that I was constantly forcing on to myself! Whether wanting to be farther along in my career or wanting more money (especially during those early days when I didn't have any), there was always pressure. Through self-discovery I learned that I had been creating these mental and emotion prisons for myself! I had convinced myself that I wasn't worthy of more, even though I wanted and deserved more! So I made the biggest decision of my life and decided that I would never give myself an excuse for not accomplishing EVERYTHING that I set my Mind to. I knew that if my Mind was powerful enough to put me in such a depressed state for years, then surely this same Mind could create the life that I have always prayed and dreamed of! This book is a compilation of some of my favorite quotes that have come to me while praying, meditating, and just sitting in stillness over the years. Recently I thought to myself, "If these quotes helped me, then they can help someone else" That is the sole mission of this book. I want you to unlock all of the power that your Mind has, and create the best and most successful version of you! Because ultimately, we are who we think we are!

Mastering Your Mind

There is nothing more powerful than a changed Mind.

DENIM RICHARDS

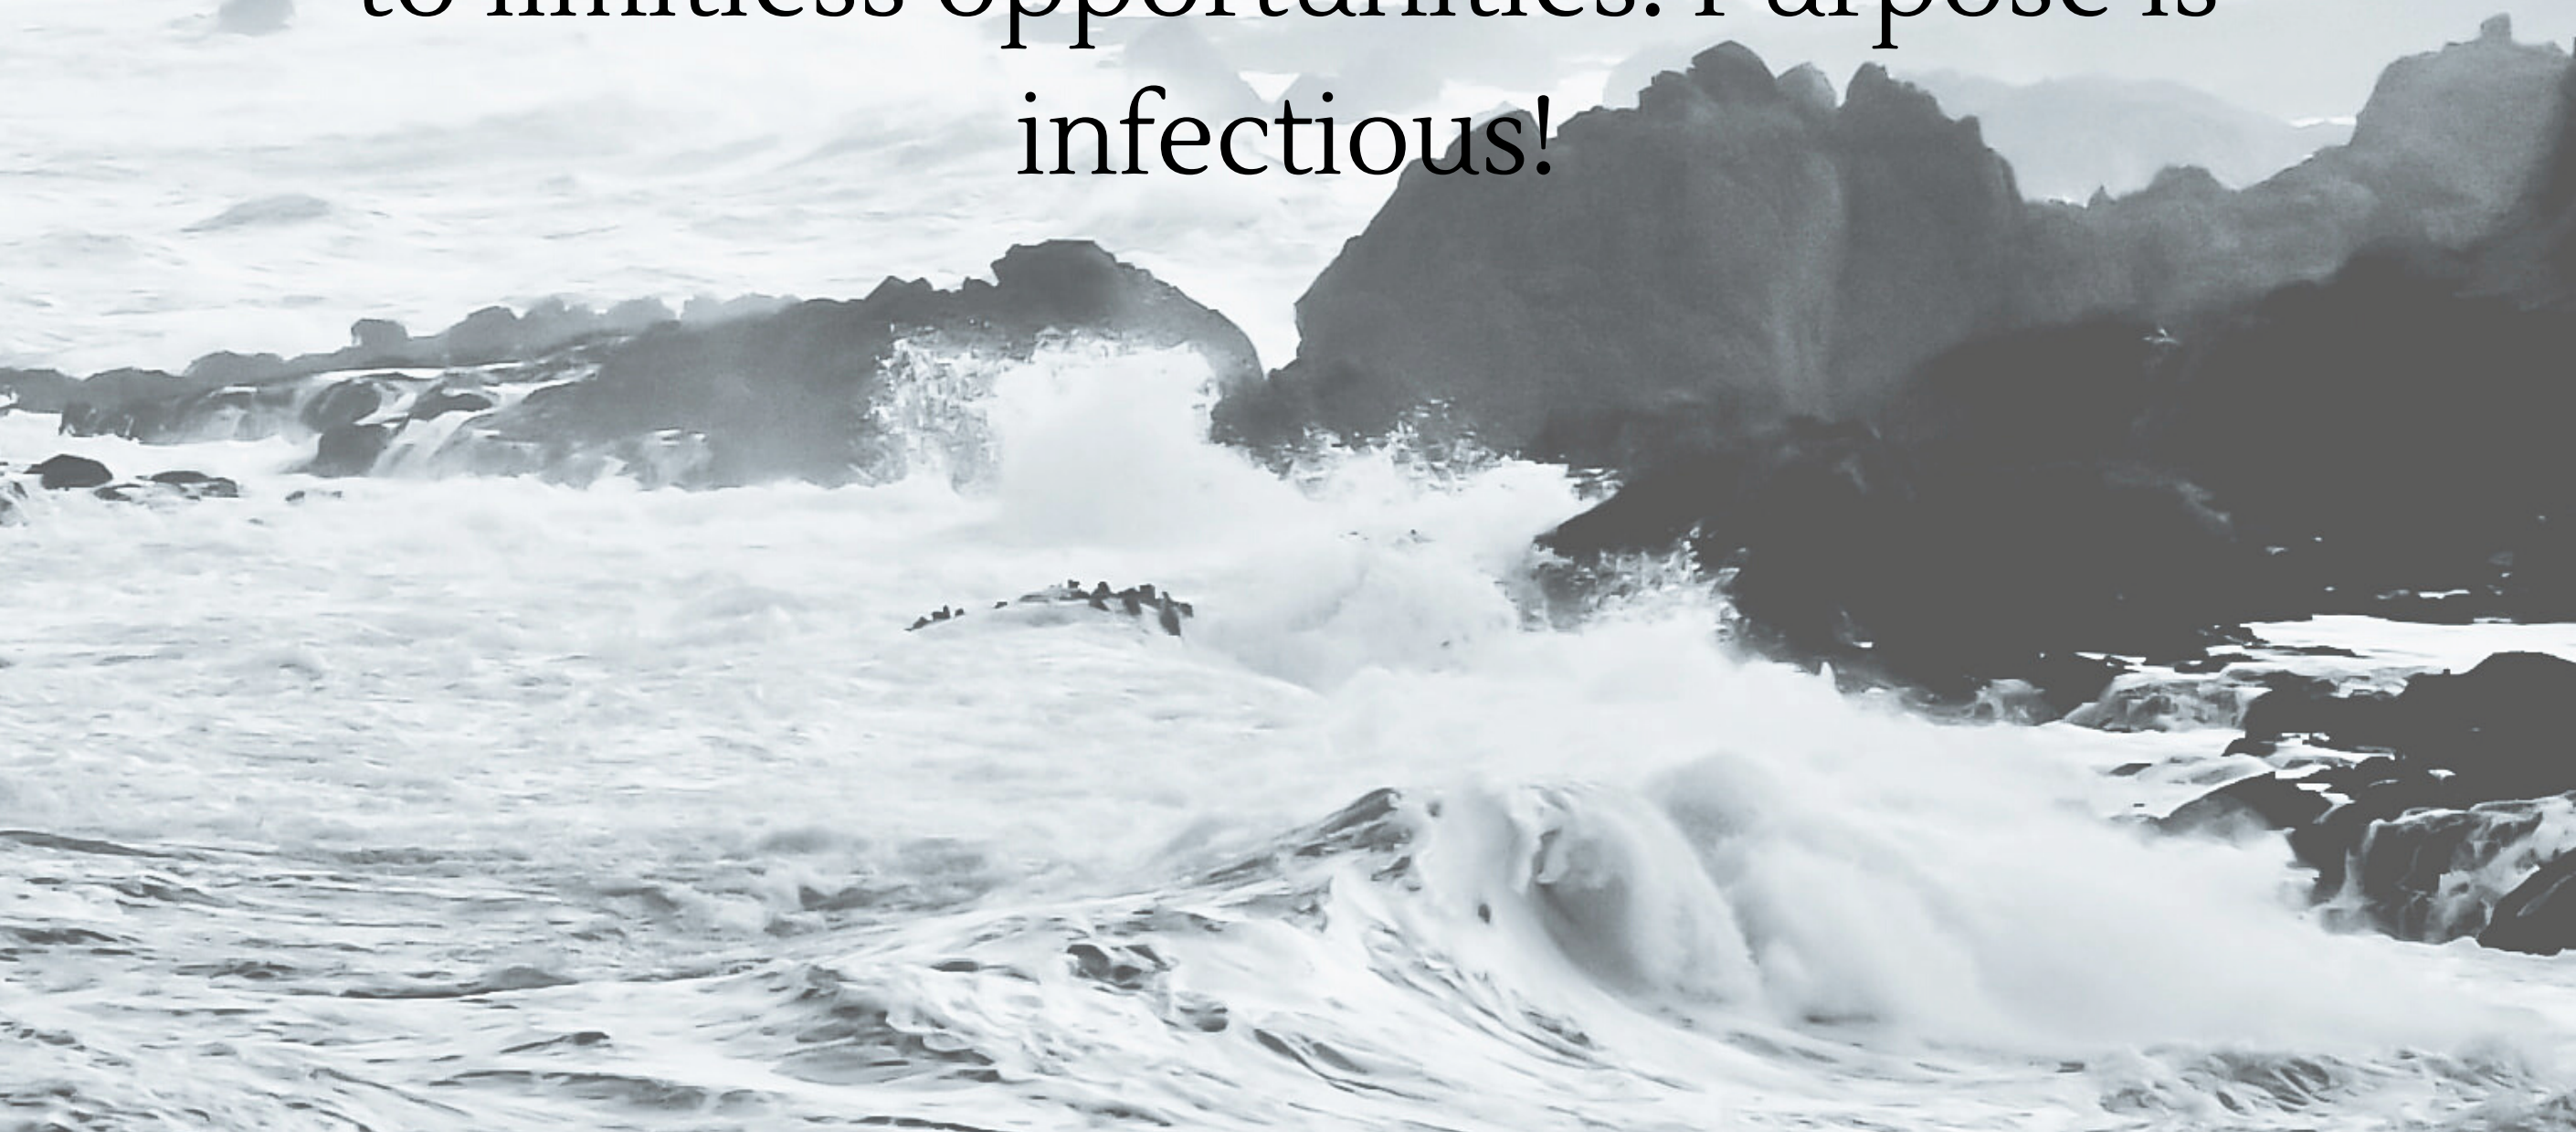

A changed Mind can be the most difficult thing to accept not only for you, but for those around you. Why? Usually because it requires instant change! And as we all know instant change can be very inconvenient. A changed Mind means that you may begin to separate yourself from certain individuals and environments which can be uncomfortable. Organically, we oppose bringing anything into our lives that may make us uncomfortable. Keep in mind that even though this may be challenging, you should never allow it to get in the way of your expansion as a human being. Your expansion is the key to unlocking everything that you have ever dreamed about. Your expansion is limitless! Expansion is freedom! We were created to evolve not stay the same.. that goes for your MIND as well.

Mastering Your Mind

Walk with Purpose. Walk with your shoulders square, and walk like you know something great is about to happen in your life.

DENIM RICHARDS

The moment that you accept that your very existence serves a higher purpose, the quicker you will realize that you can and will accomplish anything that you put your Mind to. When you value yourself, everything in your circumstance changes and thus you change! You gain this confidence and create this positive aura that surrounds you, and opens up your life to limitless opportunities. Purpose is infectious!

Mastering Your Mind

If you can work your cave...you can work your Kingdom.

DENIM RICHARDS

So much of our mindset is predicated upon how many items we own or things that we have. Since this is the mindset, when things in our lives are not going according to plan, we automatically assume we are no longer worthy of anything bigger or better. But this isn't true! We need to learn how to manage and appreciate all of the things in our lives, big and small, and take pride in what we have right now! It doesn't matter if we only have a little bit. Big things come from small beginnings.

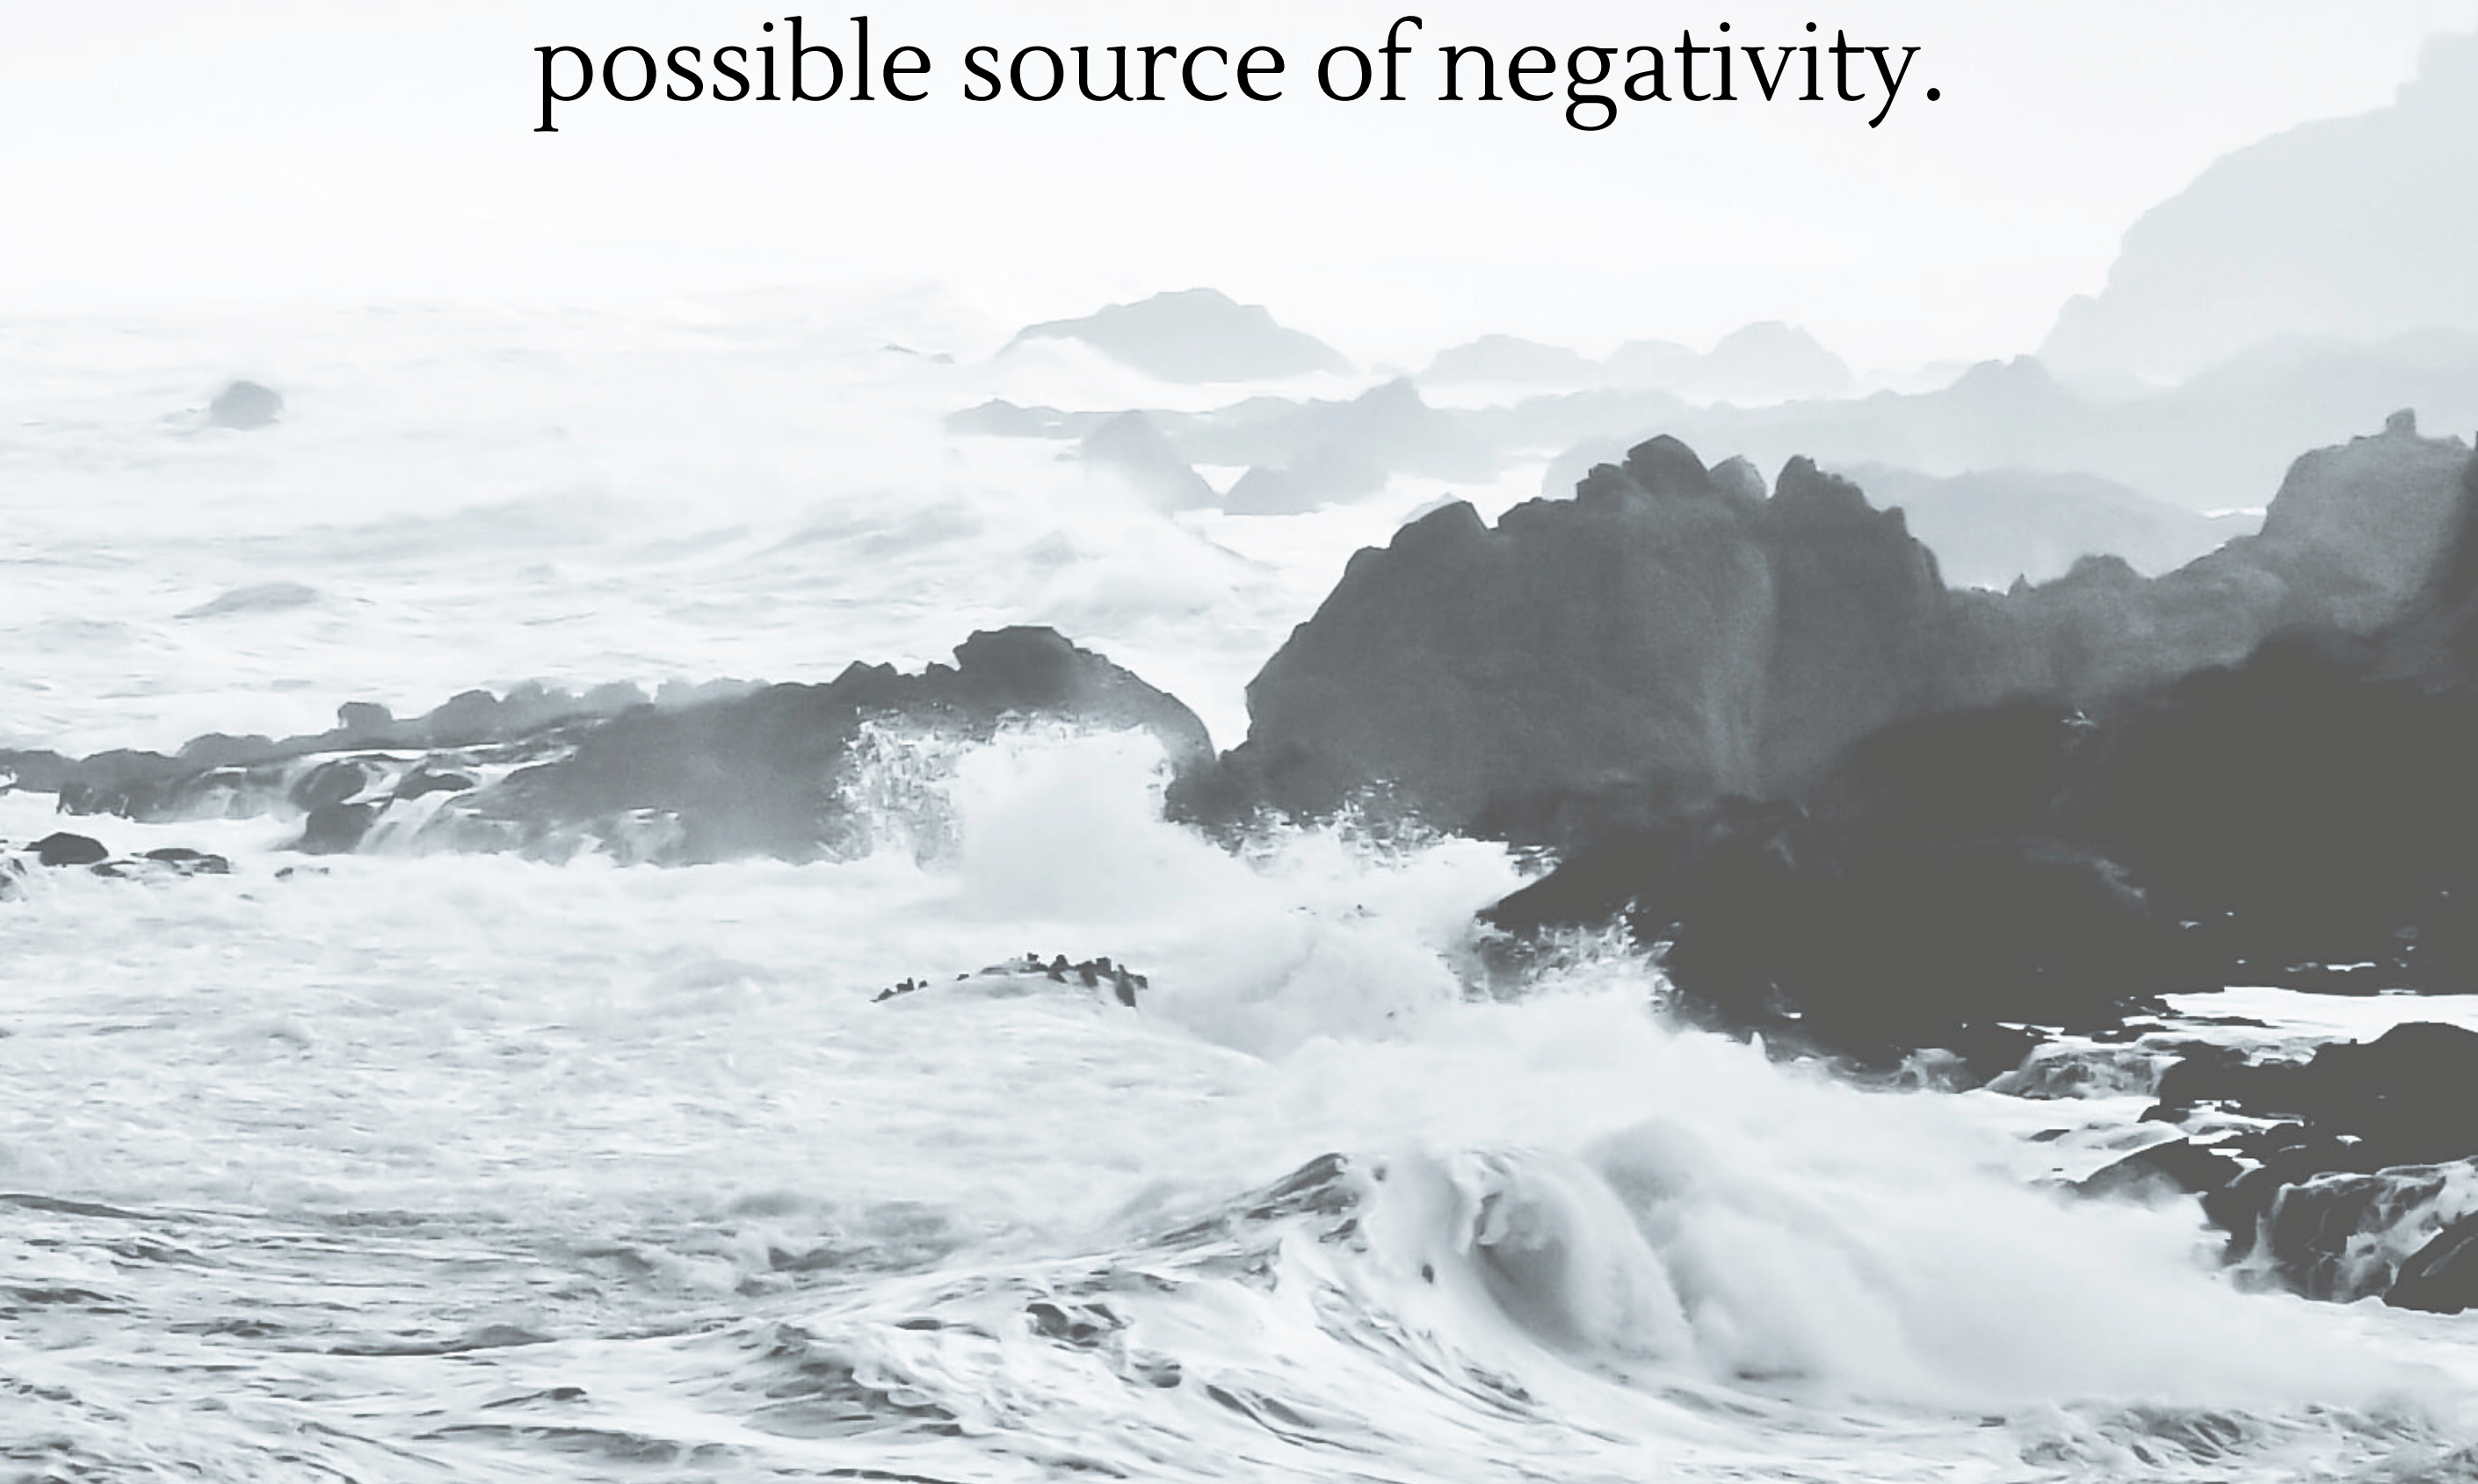

Mastering Your Mind

Work on seeing the beauty in Everyone.

DENIM RICHARDS

We are all uniquely designed. We all like different things and have different opinions. We must learn to appreciate and respect everyone's unique design, even if we don't agree with it. The sooner we meet people where they are and not where we want them to be, the easier it is to see their beauty. Thus, we free our minds from another possible source of negativity.

Mastering Your Mind

Sometimes you just need to reach out to someone and let them know that you are happy they made it.

DENIM RICHARDS

Unselfishly, we focus on our individual struggles. Those are hard enough to navigate. We never truly know what struggles others are having. Its important that we reach out to friends and loved ones letting them know that they are thought of and that we support their endeavors and accomplishments. Remind them of their value in your life, or remind them about a story where they did something beautiful or incredible. Feed their spirit some positive energy! Reaching out may end up doing something life changing for them.

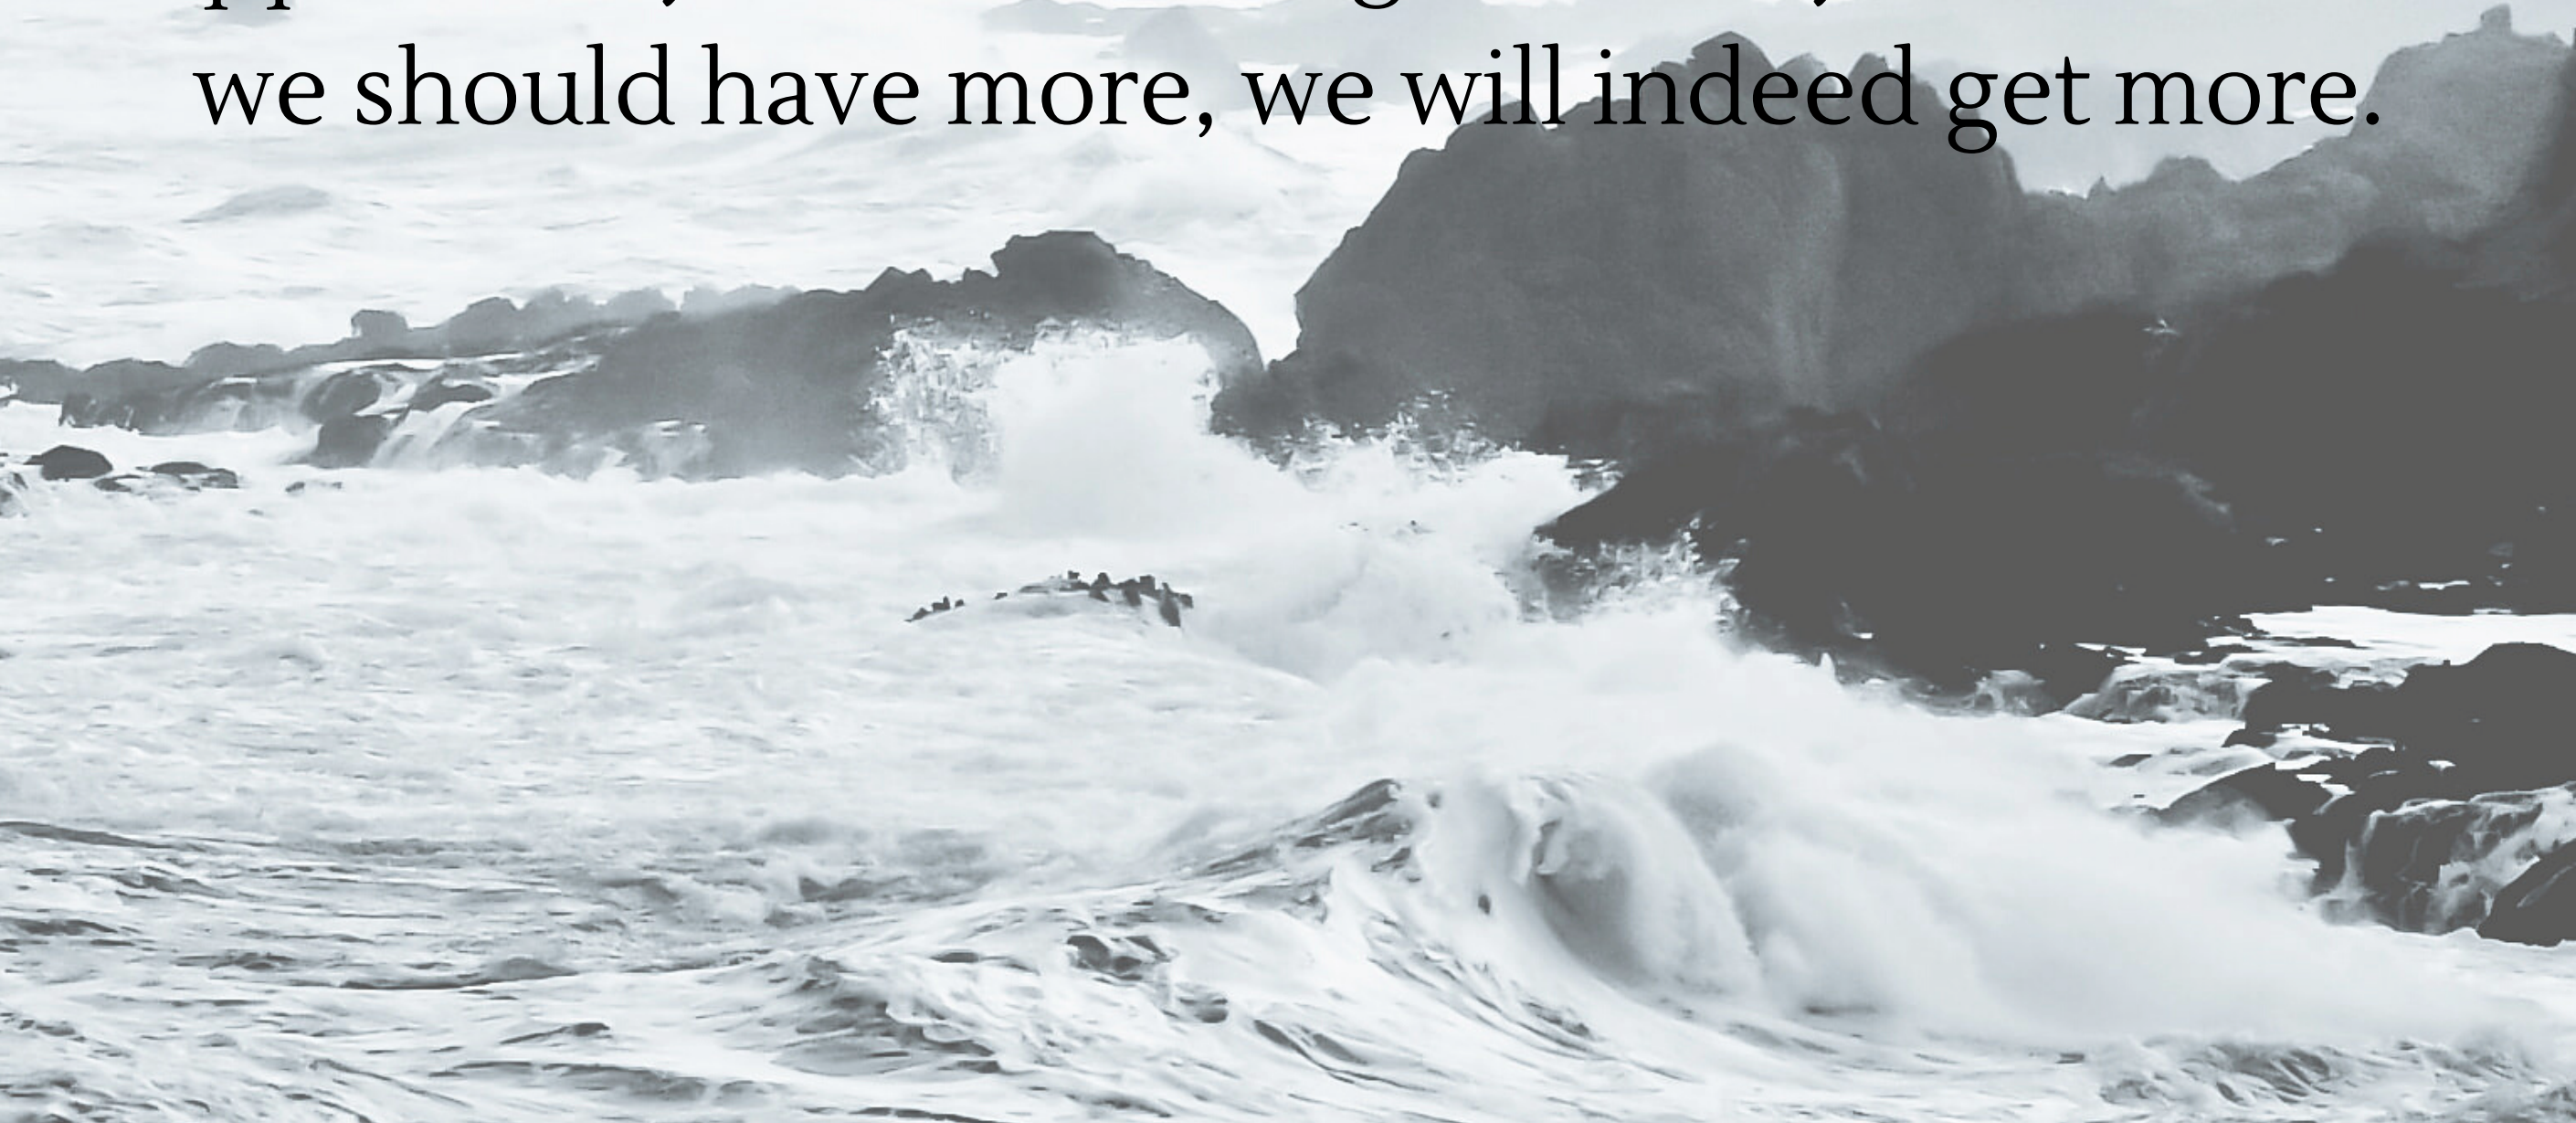

A black and white photograph of a rocky coastline. In the foreground, a large, white, foamy wave is crashing against dark, jagged rocks. The water is turbulent, with white spray and foam. In the background, more rocks and waves are visible, creating a sense of depth and movement. The sky is overcast, with soft, diffused light.

Mastering Your Mind

Prepare your Mind for expectations.

DENIM RICHARDS

Our Minds have a funny way of playing tricks on us by immediately spotting the negative within our own situation. It's only when we become aware of this that we can truly be free from it. Just because some things are not going our way doesn't mean that we should now abandon any and all thoughts of positivity! Even during a time when so much feels as though its going wrong, fight through the desire to become negative. Instead, focus on solutions and ways to turn whatever experience you are going through into a positive learning opportunity. When we begin to truly believe that we should have more, we will indeed get more.

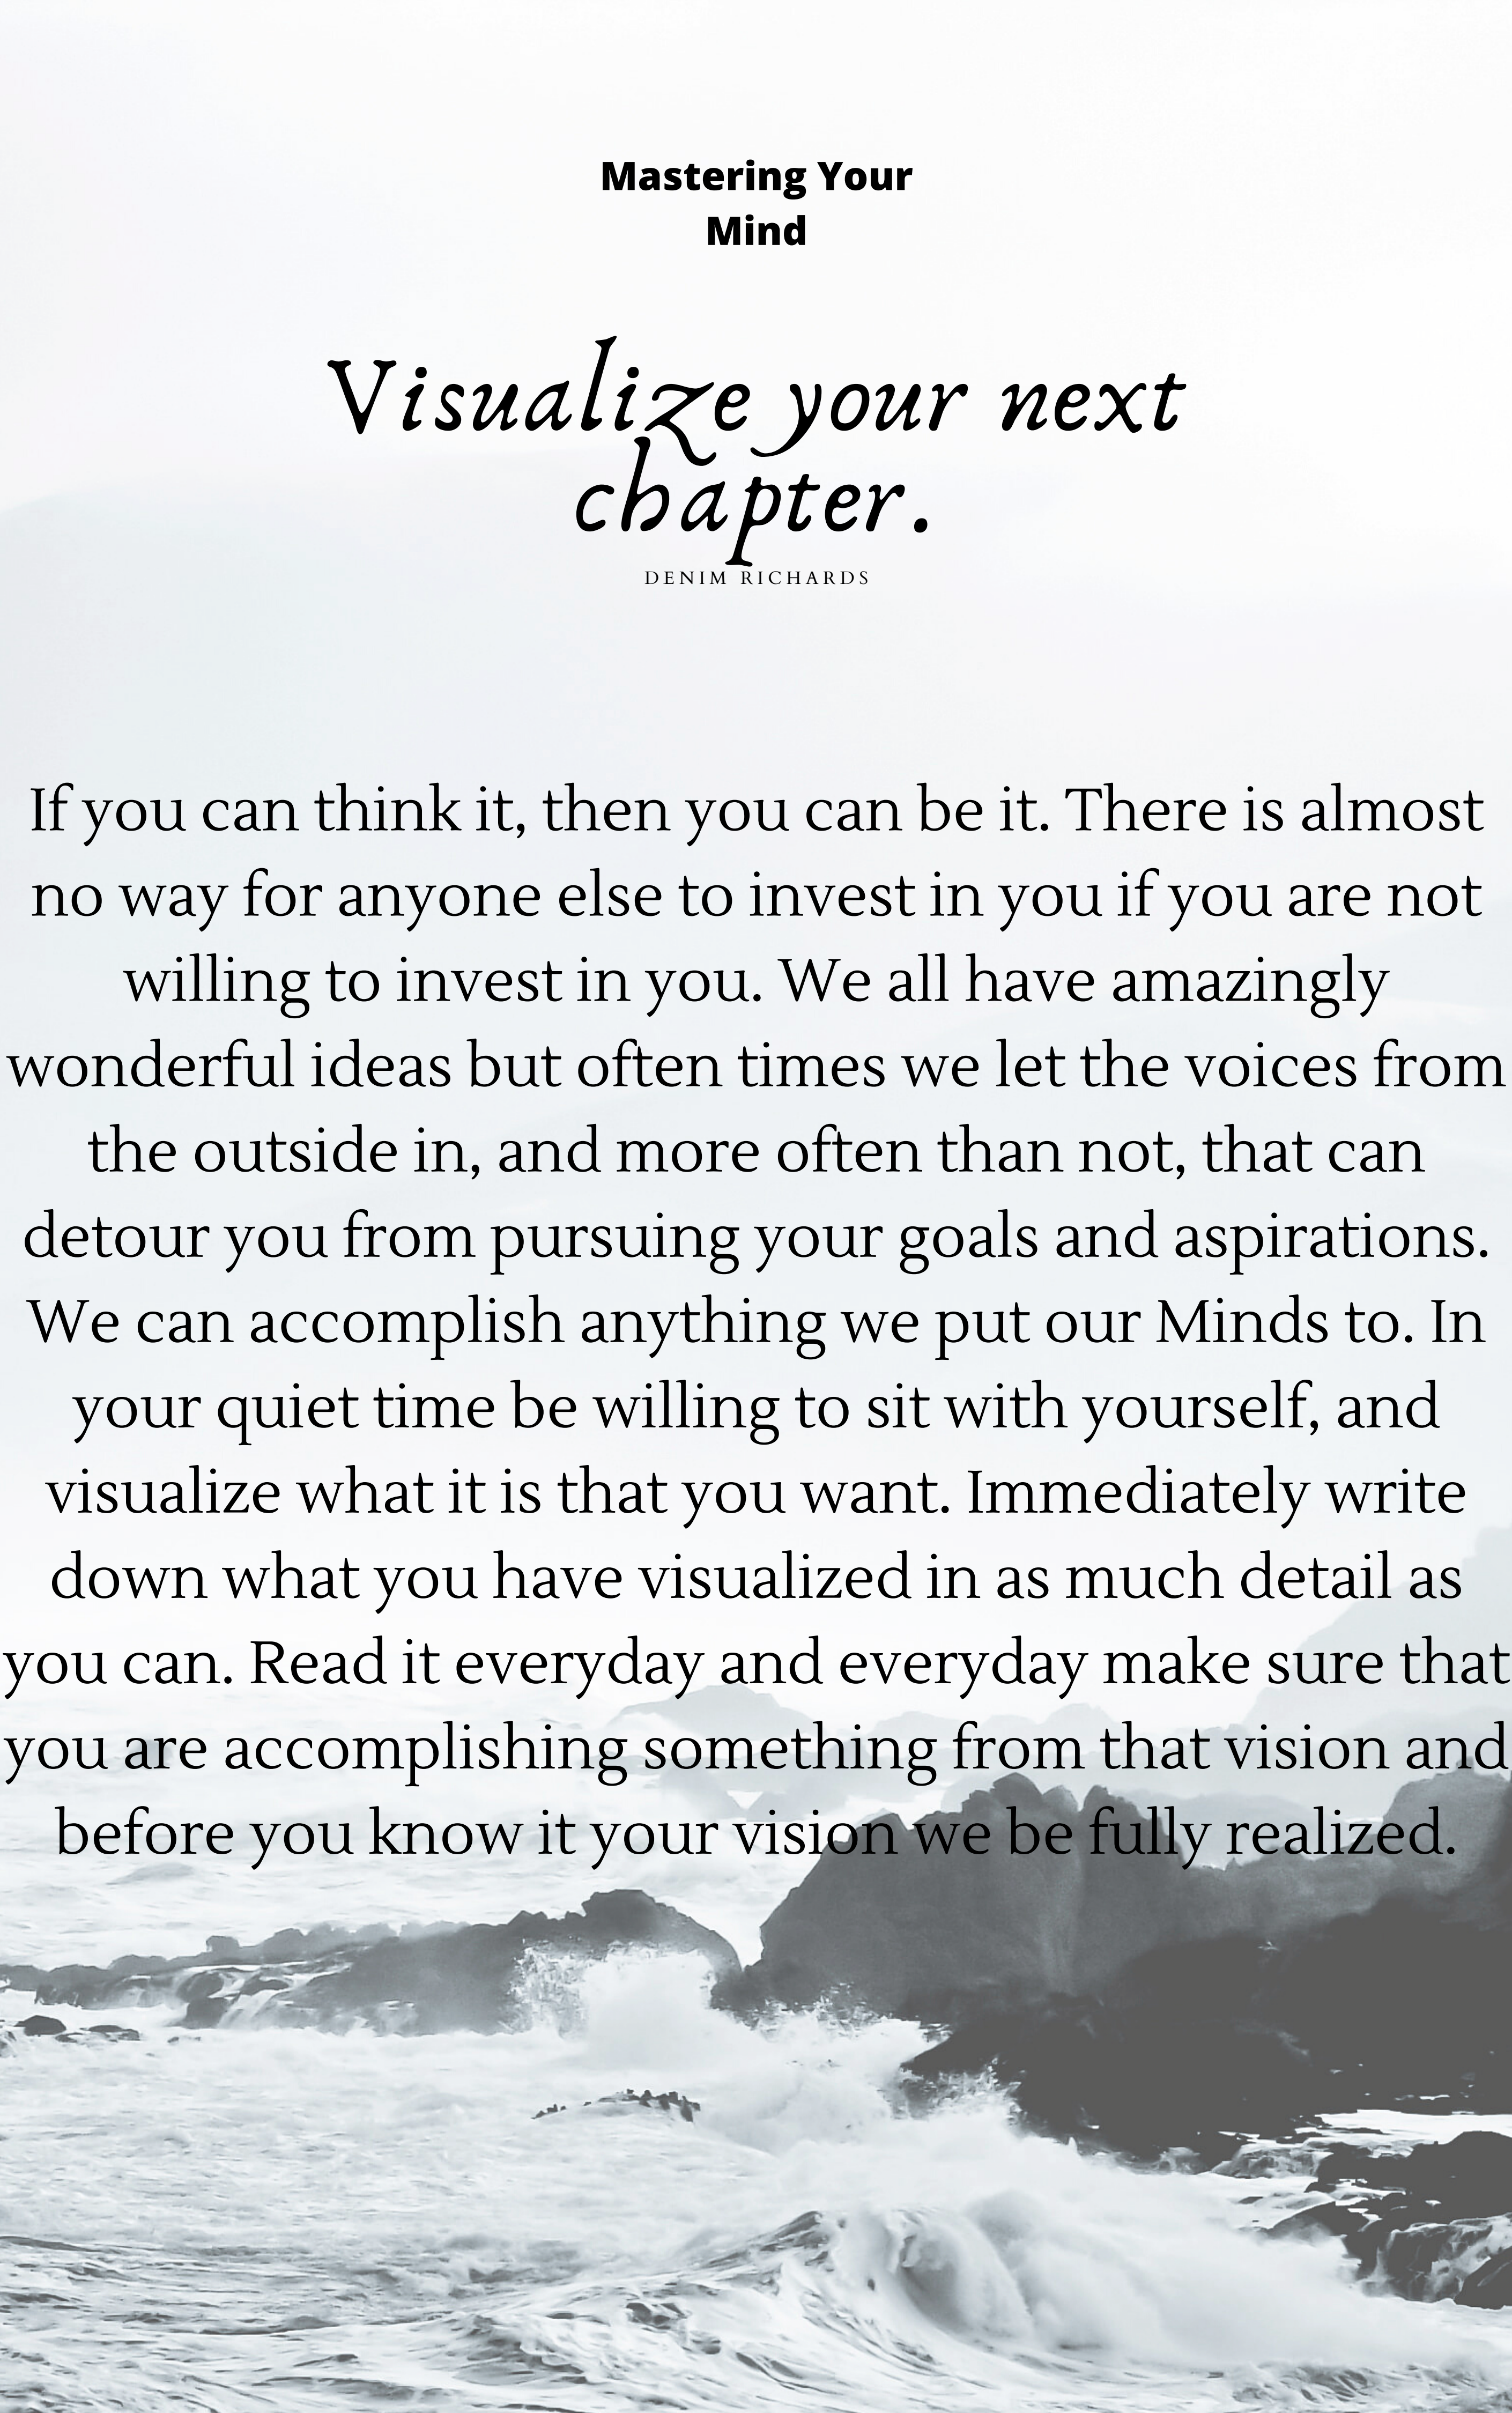

Mastering Your Mind

Visualize your next chapter.

DENIM RICHARDS

If you can think it, then you can be it. There is almost no way for anyone else to invest in you if you are not willing to invest in you. We all have amazingly wonderful ideas but often times we let the voices from the outside in, and more often than not, that can detour you from pursuing your goals and aspirations. We can accomplish anything we put our Minds to. In your quiet time be willing to sit with yourself, and visualize what it is that you want. Immediately write down what you have visualized in as much detail as you can. Read it everyday and everyday make sure that you are accomplishing something from that vision and before you know it your vision will be fully realized.

Mastering Your Mind

Your life lives in the power of your Tongue.

DENIM RICHARDS

Our words create our reality. Now this doesn't happen instantaneously, it is done over the course of time.

Words have power, frequency, and energy so what you say will begin to manifest in your life. This is why its so important to not allow yourself to crawl into a negative state of Mind. It is crucial that you never put yourself down or degrade yourself, even jokingly.

Words bury themselves deeply into your subconscious and the more you put yourself down the more negative energy you are feeding your subconscious. Instead simply acknowledge your shortfall or mistake, find the positive lesson within the experience and move off of it.

Mastering Your Mind

*A man with no vision is a

DENIM RICHARDS

Vision creates hope, hope creates change, and change breeds an entirely new environment. Everyone wants to be a part of a positive and fruitful environment however, if we are not willing to accept the greatness that lies within each of us, we will never be able to attract the types of people that can continue to contribute to our growth. We need to be able to envision all that we desire in our Mind's eye. There is no vision too big as long as you are willing to rise to the challenge.

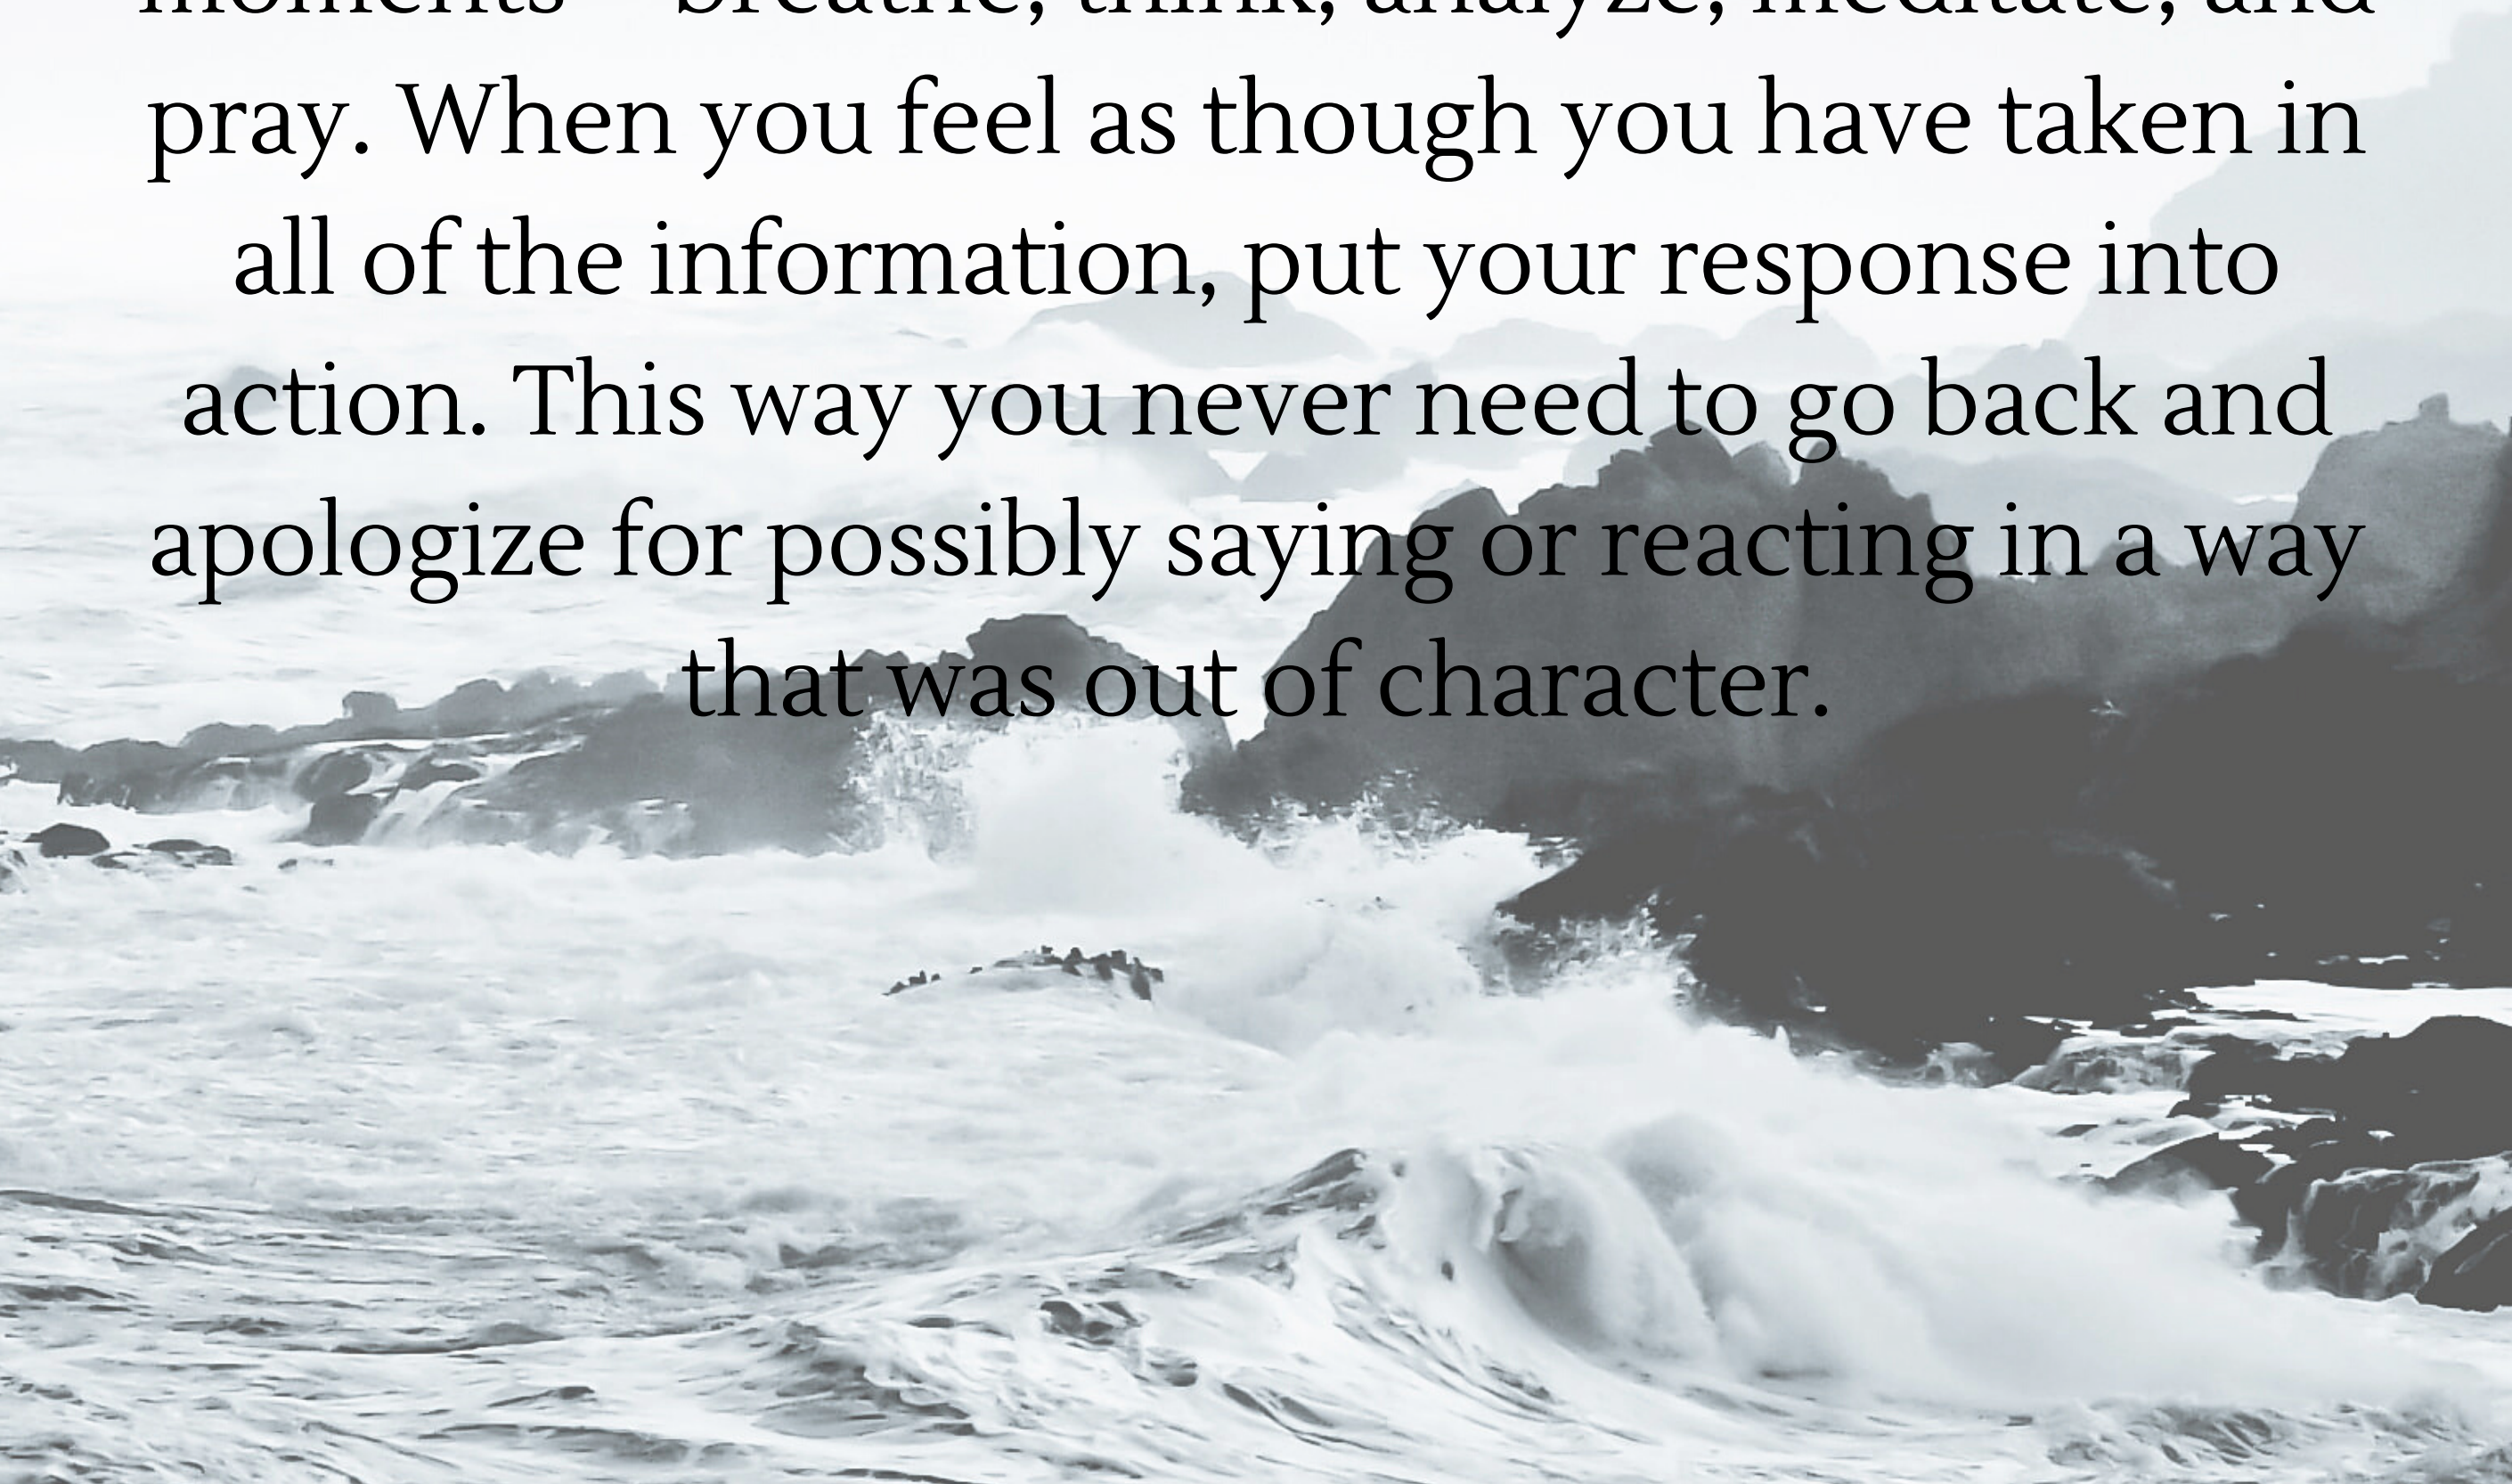

Mastering Your Mind

Sometimes during uncertainty its best to just remain still.

DENIM RICHARDS

We have very much become a reactionary culture.

We receive a piece of information that strikes a nerve, and our first response is to immediately go on the defensive or to put a wall up. But I have found that it is much easier to not respond immediately; to take in all of the information that is being presented instead of reacting and allowing it to take me off center. Just be still for a few moments - breathe, think, analyze, meditate, and pray. When you feel as though you have taken in all of the information, put your response into action. This way you never need to go back and apologize for possibly saying or reacting in a way that was out of character.

Mastering Your Mind

Motivate yourself to greatness and your Greatness will speak for itself.

DENIM RICHARDS

When your Mind is focused and determined nothing can stop you! Not even those that may have doubted you. When you wake up everyday believing and knowing that you have value and worth, you begin to move differently. And now because you are moving differently your point of view will begin to change. You see, it's not your responsibility to inform others around you about the things that you are working on. This mental journey is about you! Focusing on the things that make you happy and motivated breed greatness. And that speaks for itself!

Mastering Your Mind

The best version of you is the Authentic you.

DENIM RICHARDS

We live in a world where it can be pretty intimidating to share our opinions and thoughts, usually because we are scared that other people might not react well. The problem is that the more you hide yourself from other people, the more you are hiding yourself from you! There is nothing wrong with having a different opinion or approach to life because, that's what life is all about! Having a different POV allows us to see everyone! Exercising your mental and emotional muscles allow you to be who you want to be. You were not meant to be governed by the opinions of others. Your Mind is yours - love it, expand it, nourish it.

Mastering Your Mind

When you are getting ready to expand, be prepared for opposition.

DENIM RICHARDS

It can be challenging for us to wrap our Minds around the fact that there might be a few people that don't like that we are evolving and expanding. This has nothing to do with you, and has everything to do with insecurities that other individuals might have. Perhaps they are not happy with the things that are going on in their own life, or maybe they are worried that they will no longer hold any control or power over you. Either way that's not your issue.

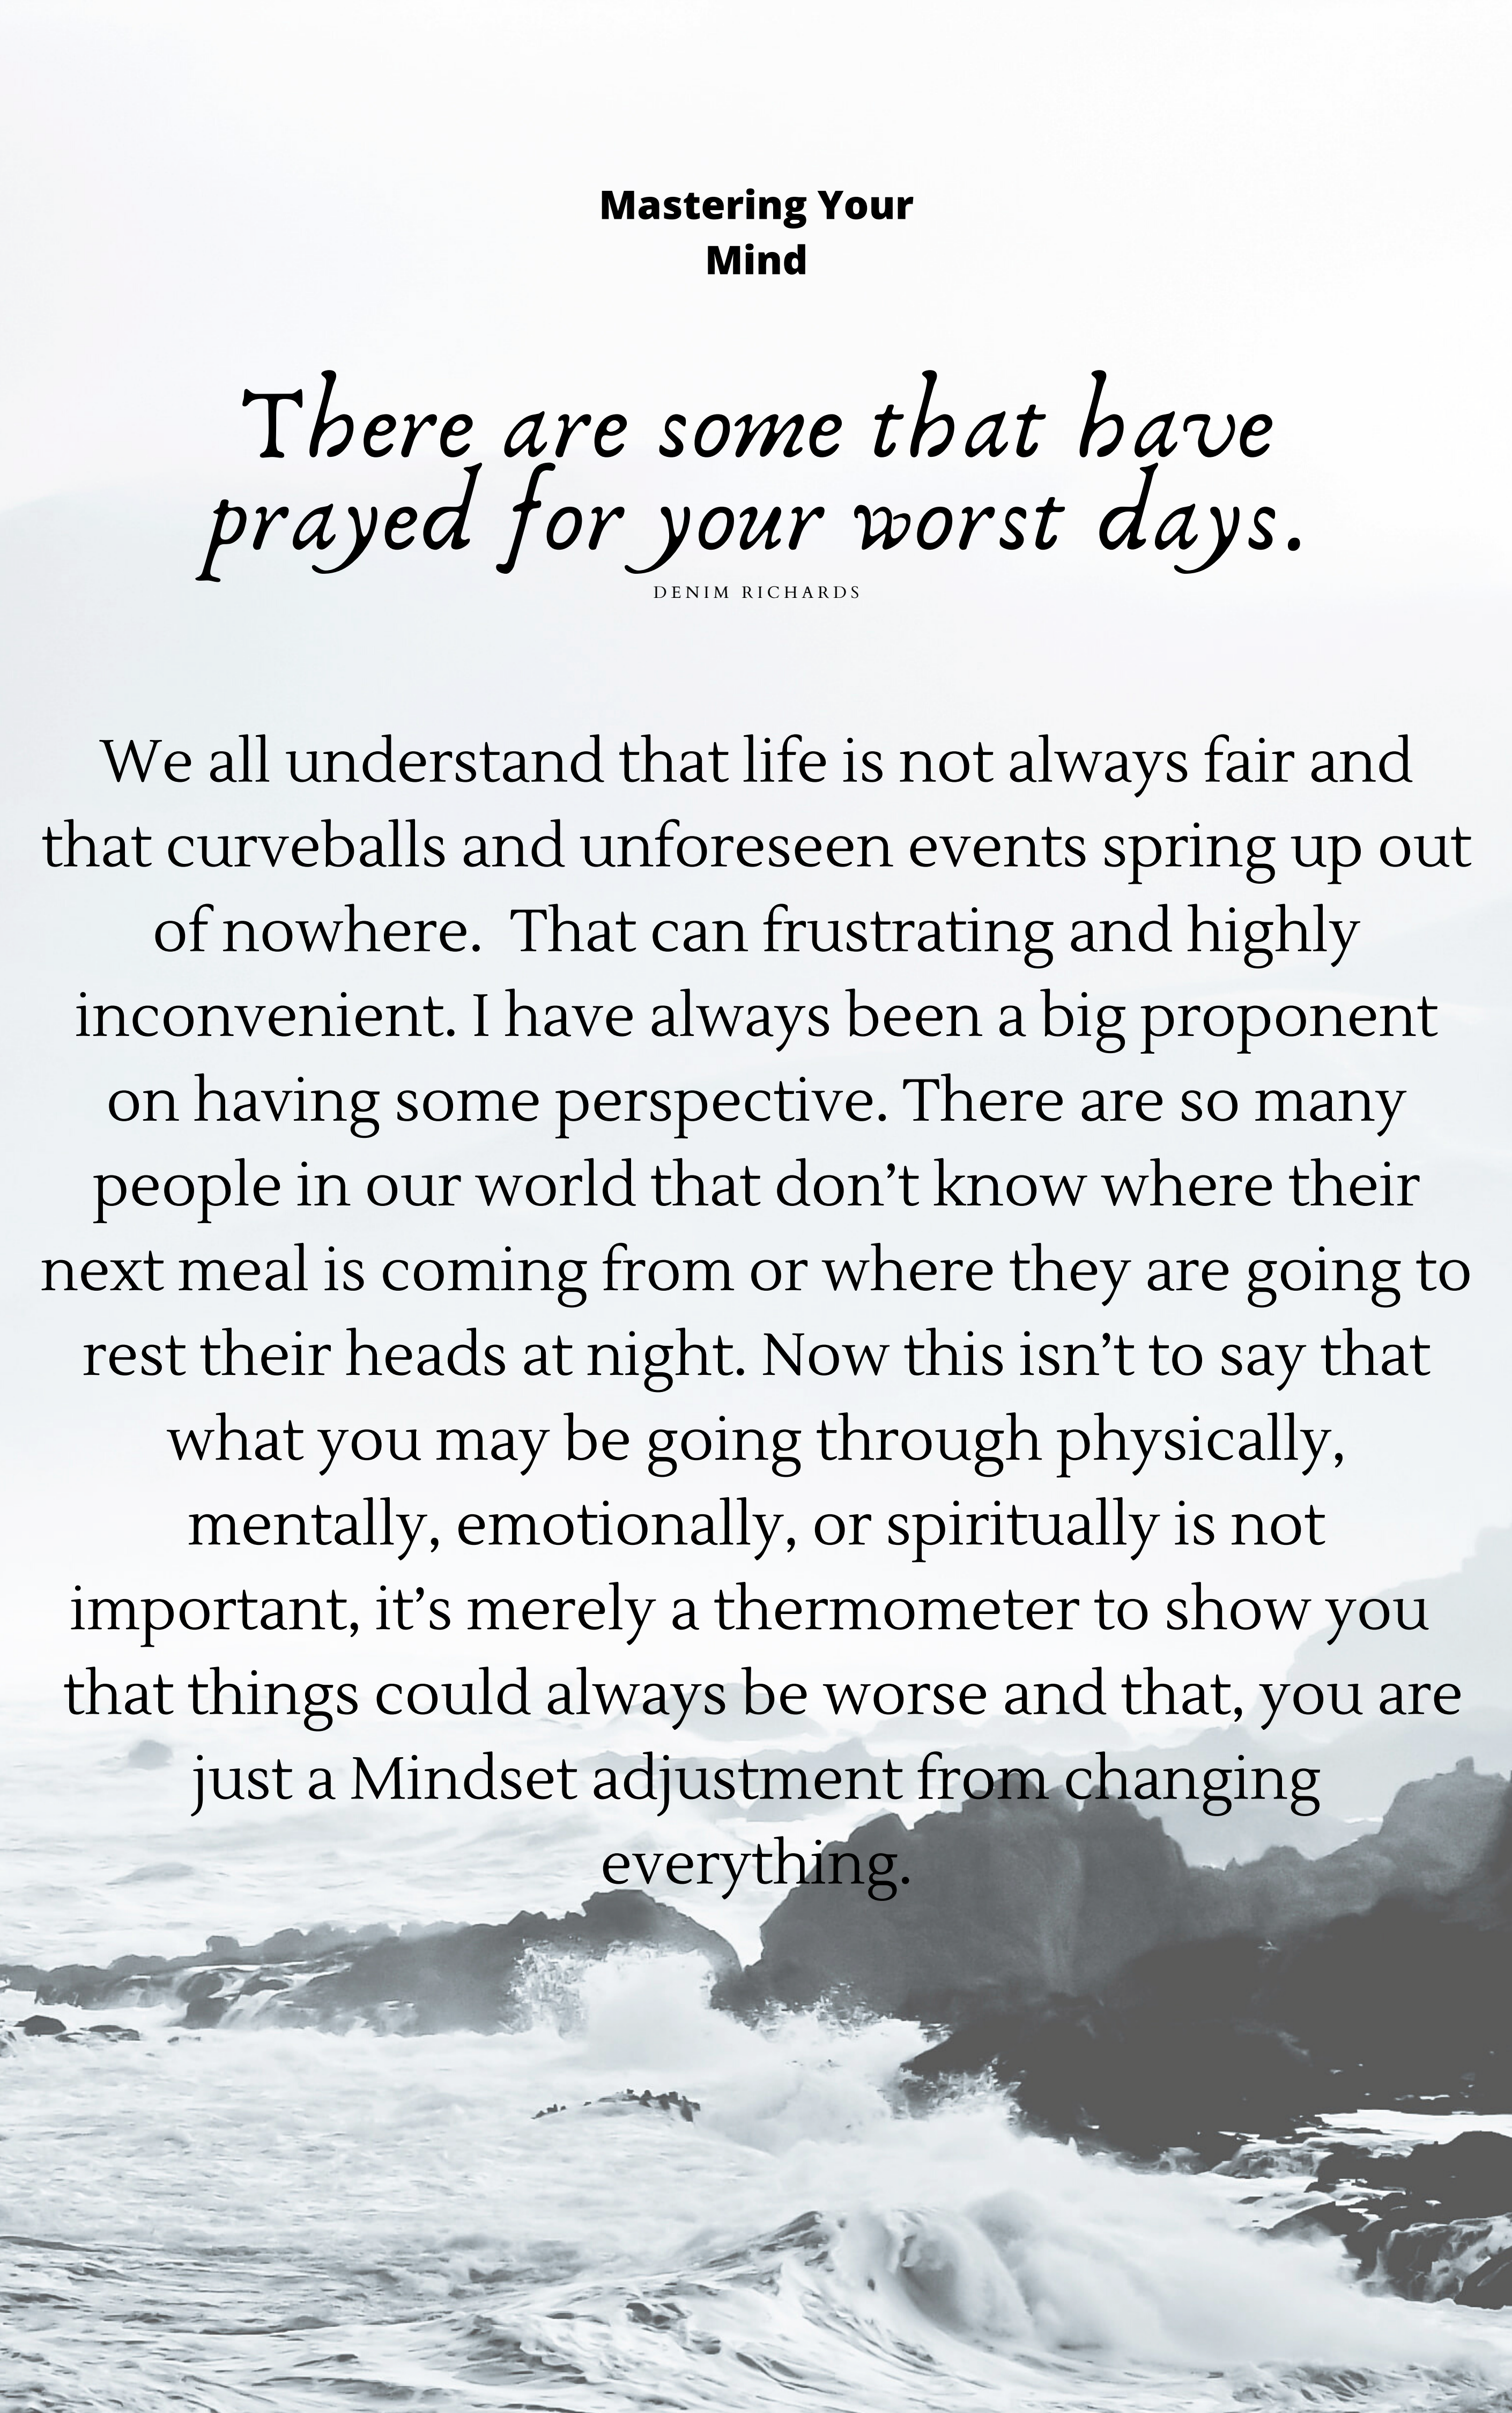

Mastering Your Mind

There are some that have prayed for your worst days.

DENIM RICHARDS

We all understand that life is not always fair and that curveballs and unforeseen events spring up out of nowhere. That can be frustrating and highly inconvenient. I have always been a big proponent on having some perspective. There are so many people in our world that don't know where their next meal is coming from or where they are going to rest their heads at night. Now this isn't to say that what you may be going through physically, mentally, emotionally, or spiritually is not important, it's merely a thermometer to show you that things could always be worse and that, you are just a Mindset adjustment from changing everything.

Mastering Your Mind

Your unlimited potential comes from your strong ability to Question your Minds eye.

DENIM RICHARDS

One of the greatest things that you can do for your Mind is question it, often! Its important to be able to play devils advocate with yourself because it keeps your Mind sharp and ever adapting. There's no enlightenment by seeing or hearing the same things repeated over and over.. your Mind would begin to go to waste. Your Mind is a muscle! and it needs to be worked out, just like are physical bodies, if we do not workout we become weaker. Design a unique way for you to work your Mind out on an everyday basis. Create an idea and think of what your competitor might do to take your idea out! Be open to out of the box opinions and ideas. Research different information. In this Mind exercise there can be no wrong answer or bad idea. When your Mind is strong you now open yourself up to unlimited ideas and potential for those ideas.

Mastering Your Mind

*Do not feed your envy.
Starve it.*

DENIM RICHARDS

It's easy to get caught up in the Mindset of focusing on everything that you don't have and even tricking yourself into believing that if you had what someone else has that you would be happier or much better off. Instead of taking that path which leads to nothing positive or productive, close your eyes and think about everything that you have been blessed with! From the air in your lungs to the shoes on your feet. Someone will always have a dollar more than you, and someone will always have a dollar less than you. That doesn't make either more valuable than the other.

Mastering Your Mind

Your mind is your greatest asset.

DENIM RICHARDS

You could lose everything tomorrow but as long as you have your Mind, you could regain everything you lost and then some!

Everything that you currently have is nothing more than a manifestation of all of things that you have placed in your Mind over time. The beauty of this is, even if you didn't have a dollar to your name as long as you have an idea and a vision, you can have everything!

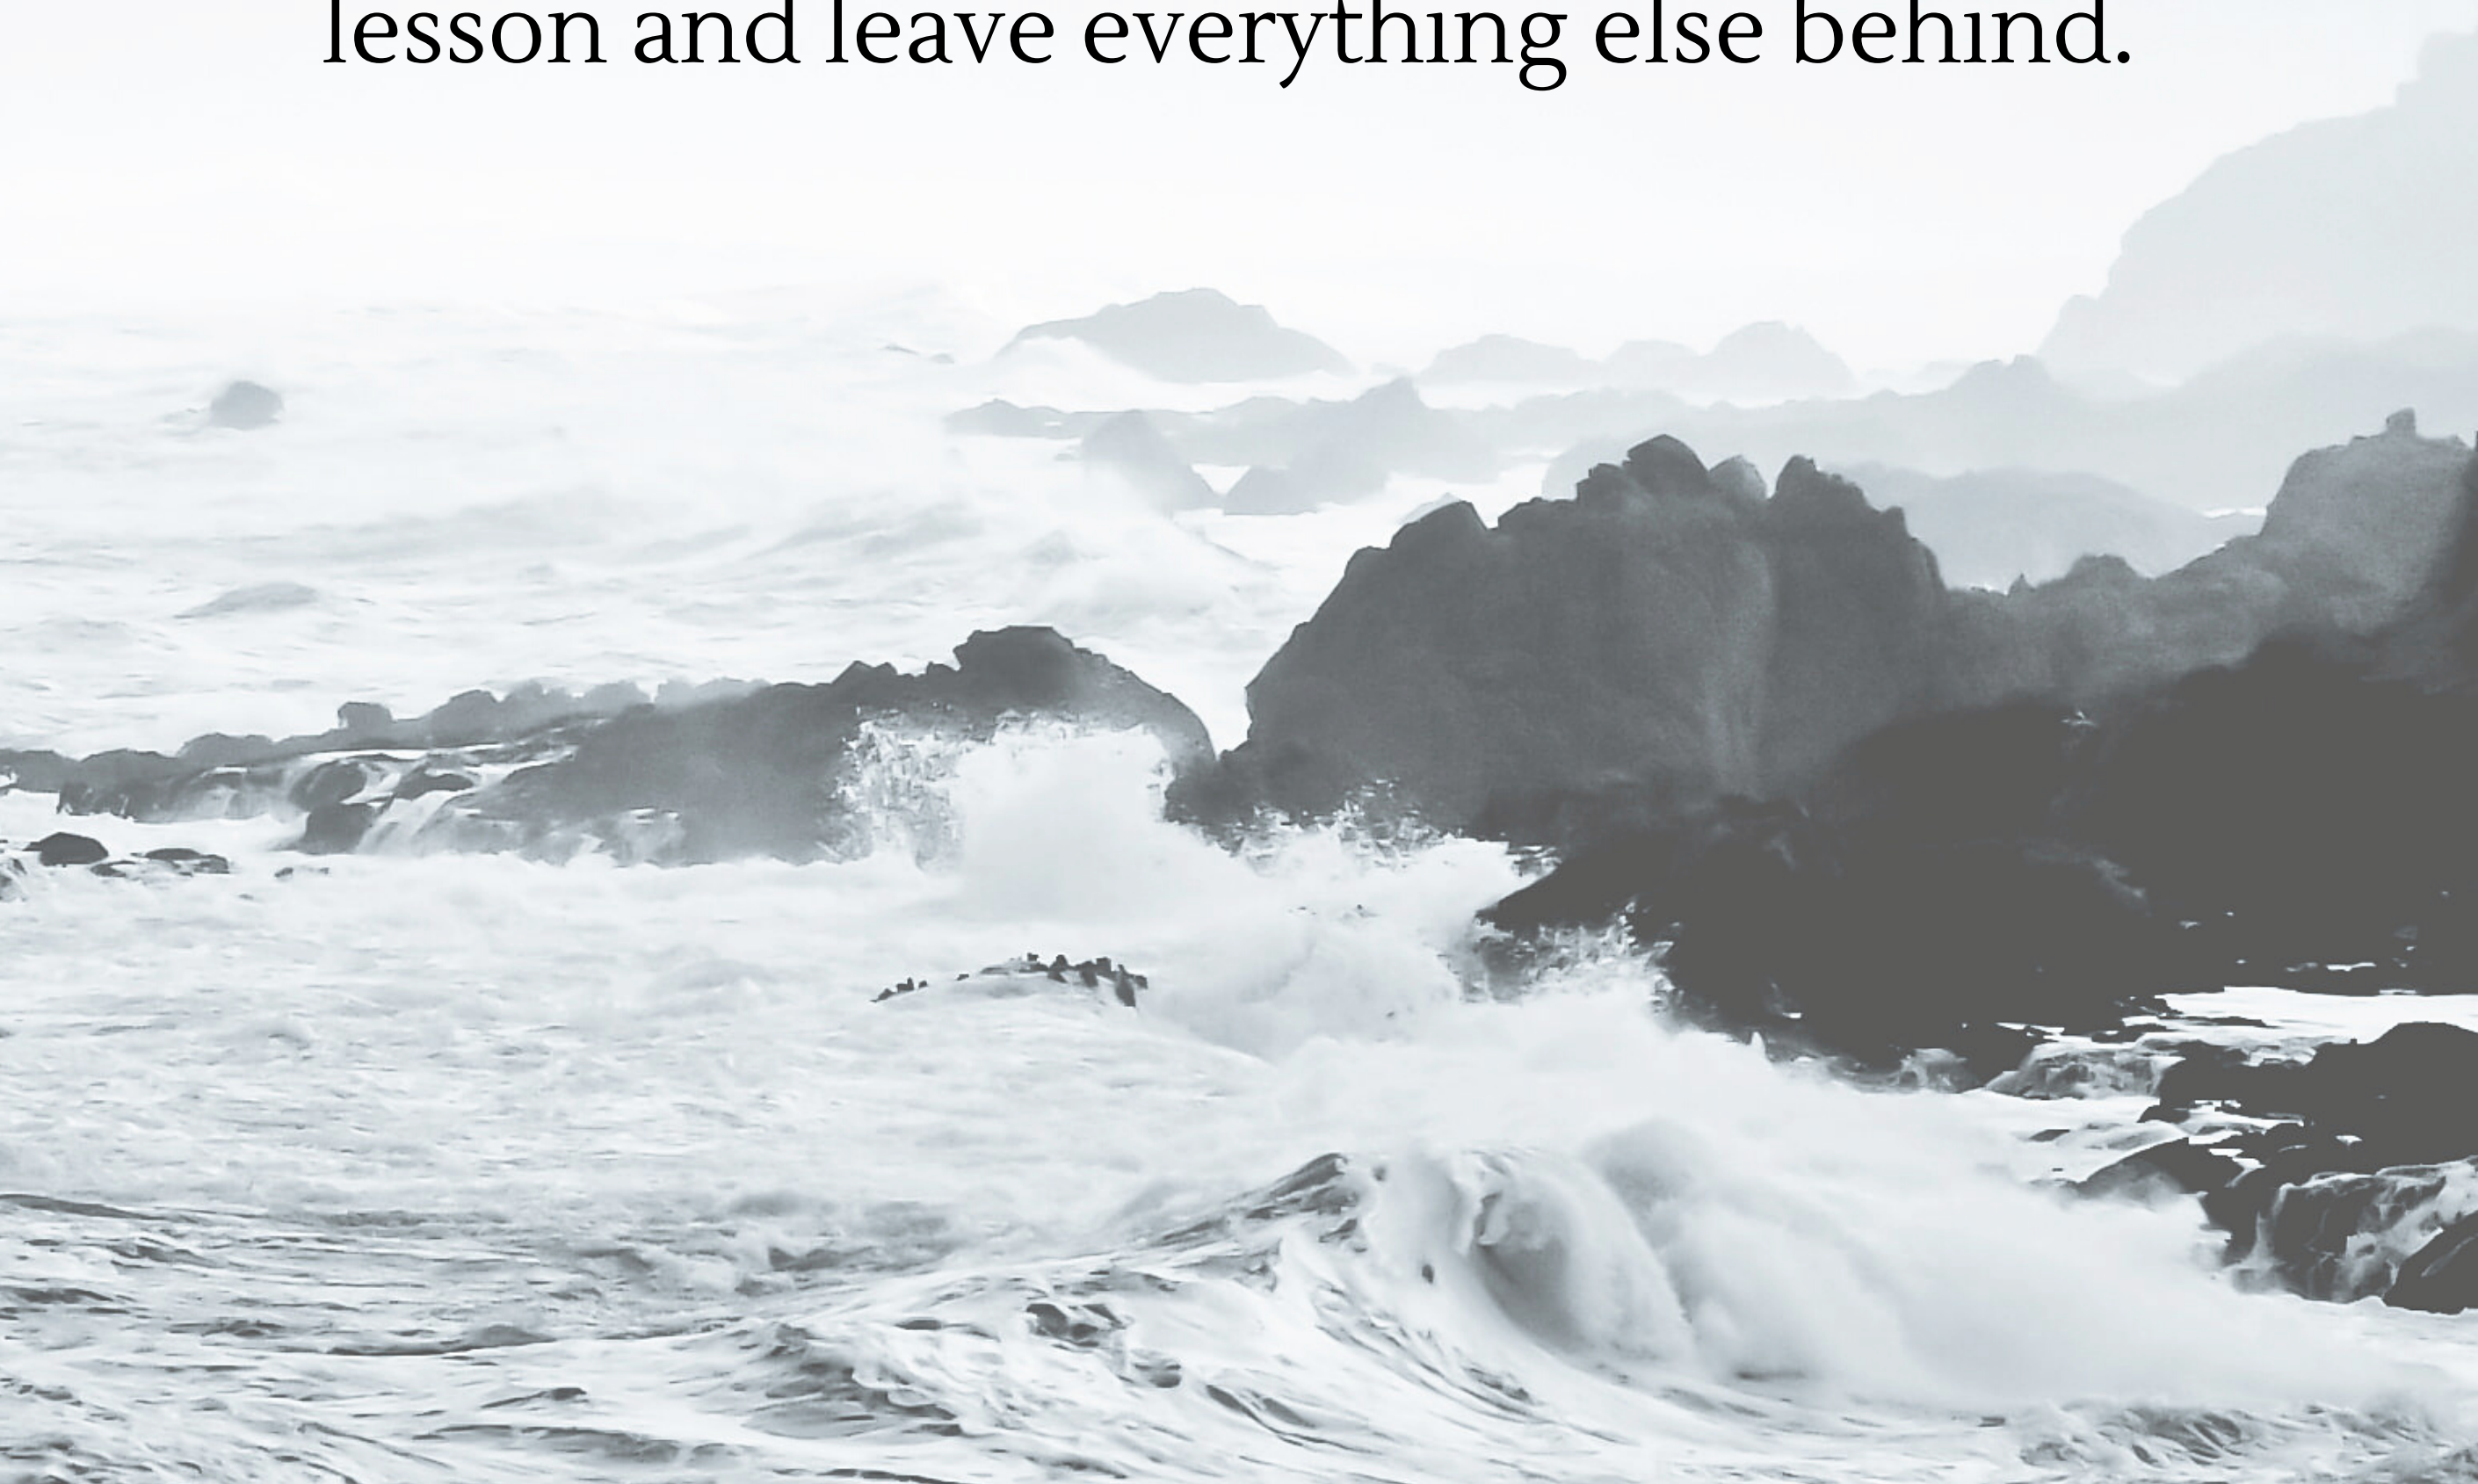

Mastering Your mind

Even your enemies serve a purpose.

DENIM RICHARDS

Opposition is important because it builds character and challenges you. This is essential when it comes to expanding your Mind. We understand that not every person is going to like us or agree with us but that doesn't mean that we can't learn from those that disagree we with. Of course we can. There is a lesson to be learned in every single encounter, good and bad. So going forward when you are met with opposition, challenge yourself to find the lesson and leave everything else behind.

Mastering Your MIND

You've gone as far as you can go with the attitude that you have - its time to let it go.

DENIM RICHARDS

In order for you to attain something that you've never had, you have to be willing to do things that you've never done! Its not just enough to say that you want better, you have to believe it with every fiber of your being! Of course it will be easy to fall into old habits, but what's the point in doing that? You already know where that leads. Challenge yourself to truly change your Mindset! This will take a little bit of time but, what's a little bit of time if ultimately, it allows you to accomplish everything that you have ever dreamed about?

Mastering Your Mind

You were not put on this Earth to just hold on. Have great expectations for yourself. Thrive!

DENIM RICHARDS

You were born with a special gift, a blessing, a seed. It's your job to hone in on these blessings, to cultivate them, and expand upon them. I believe that far too often we allow ourselves to get sidetracked or discouraged because we feel that what we want is too big. But that couldn't be further from the truth. Your dreams are your Mind and spirit coming into alignment giving you a vision of what your potential could be!

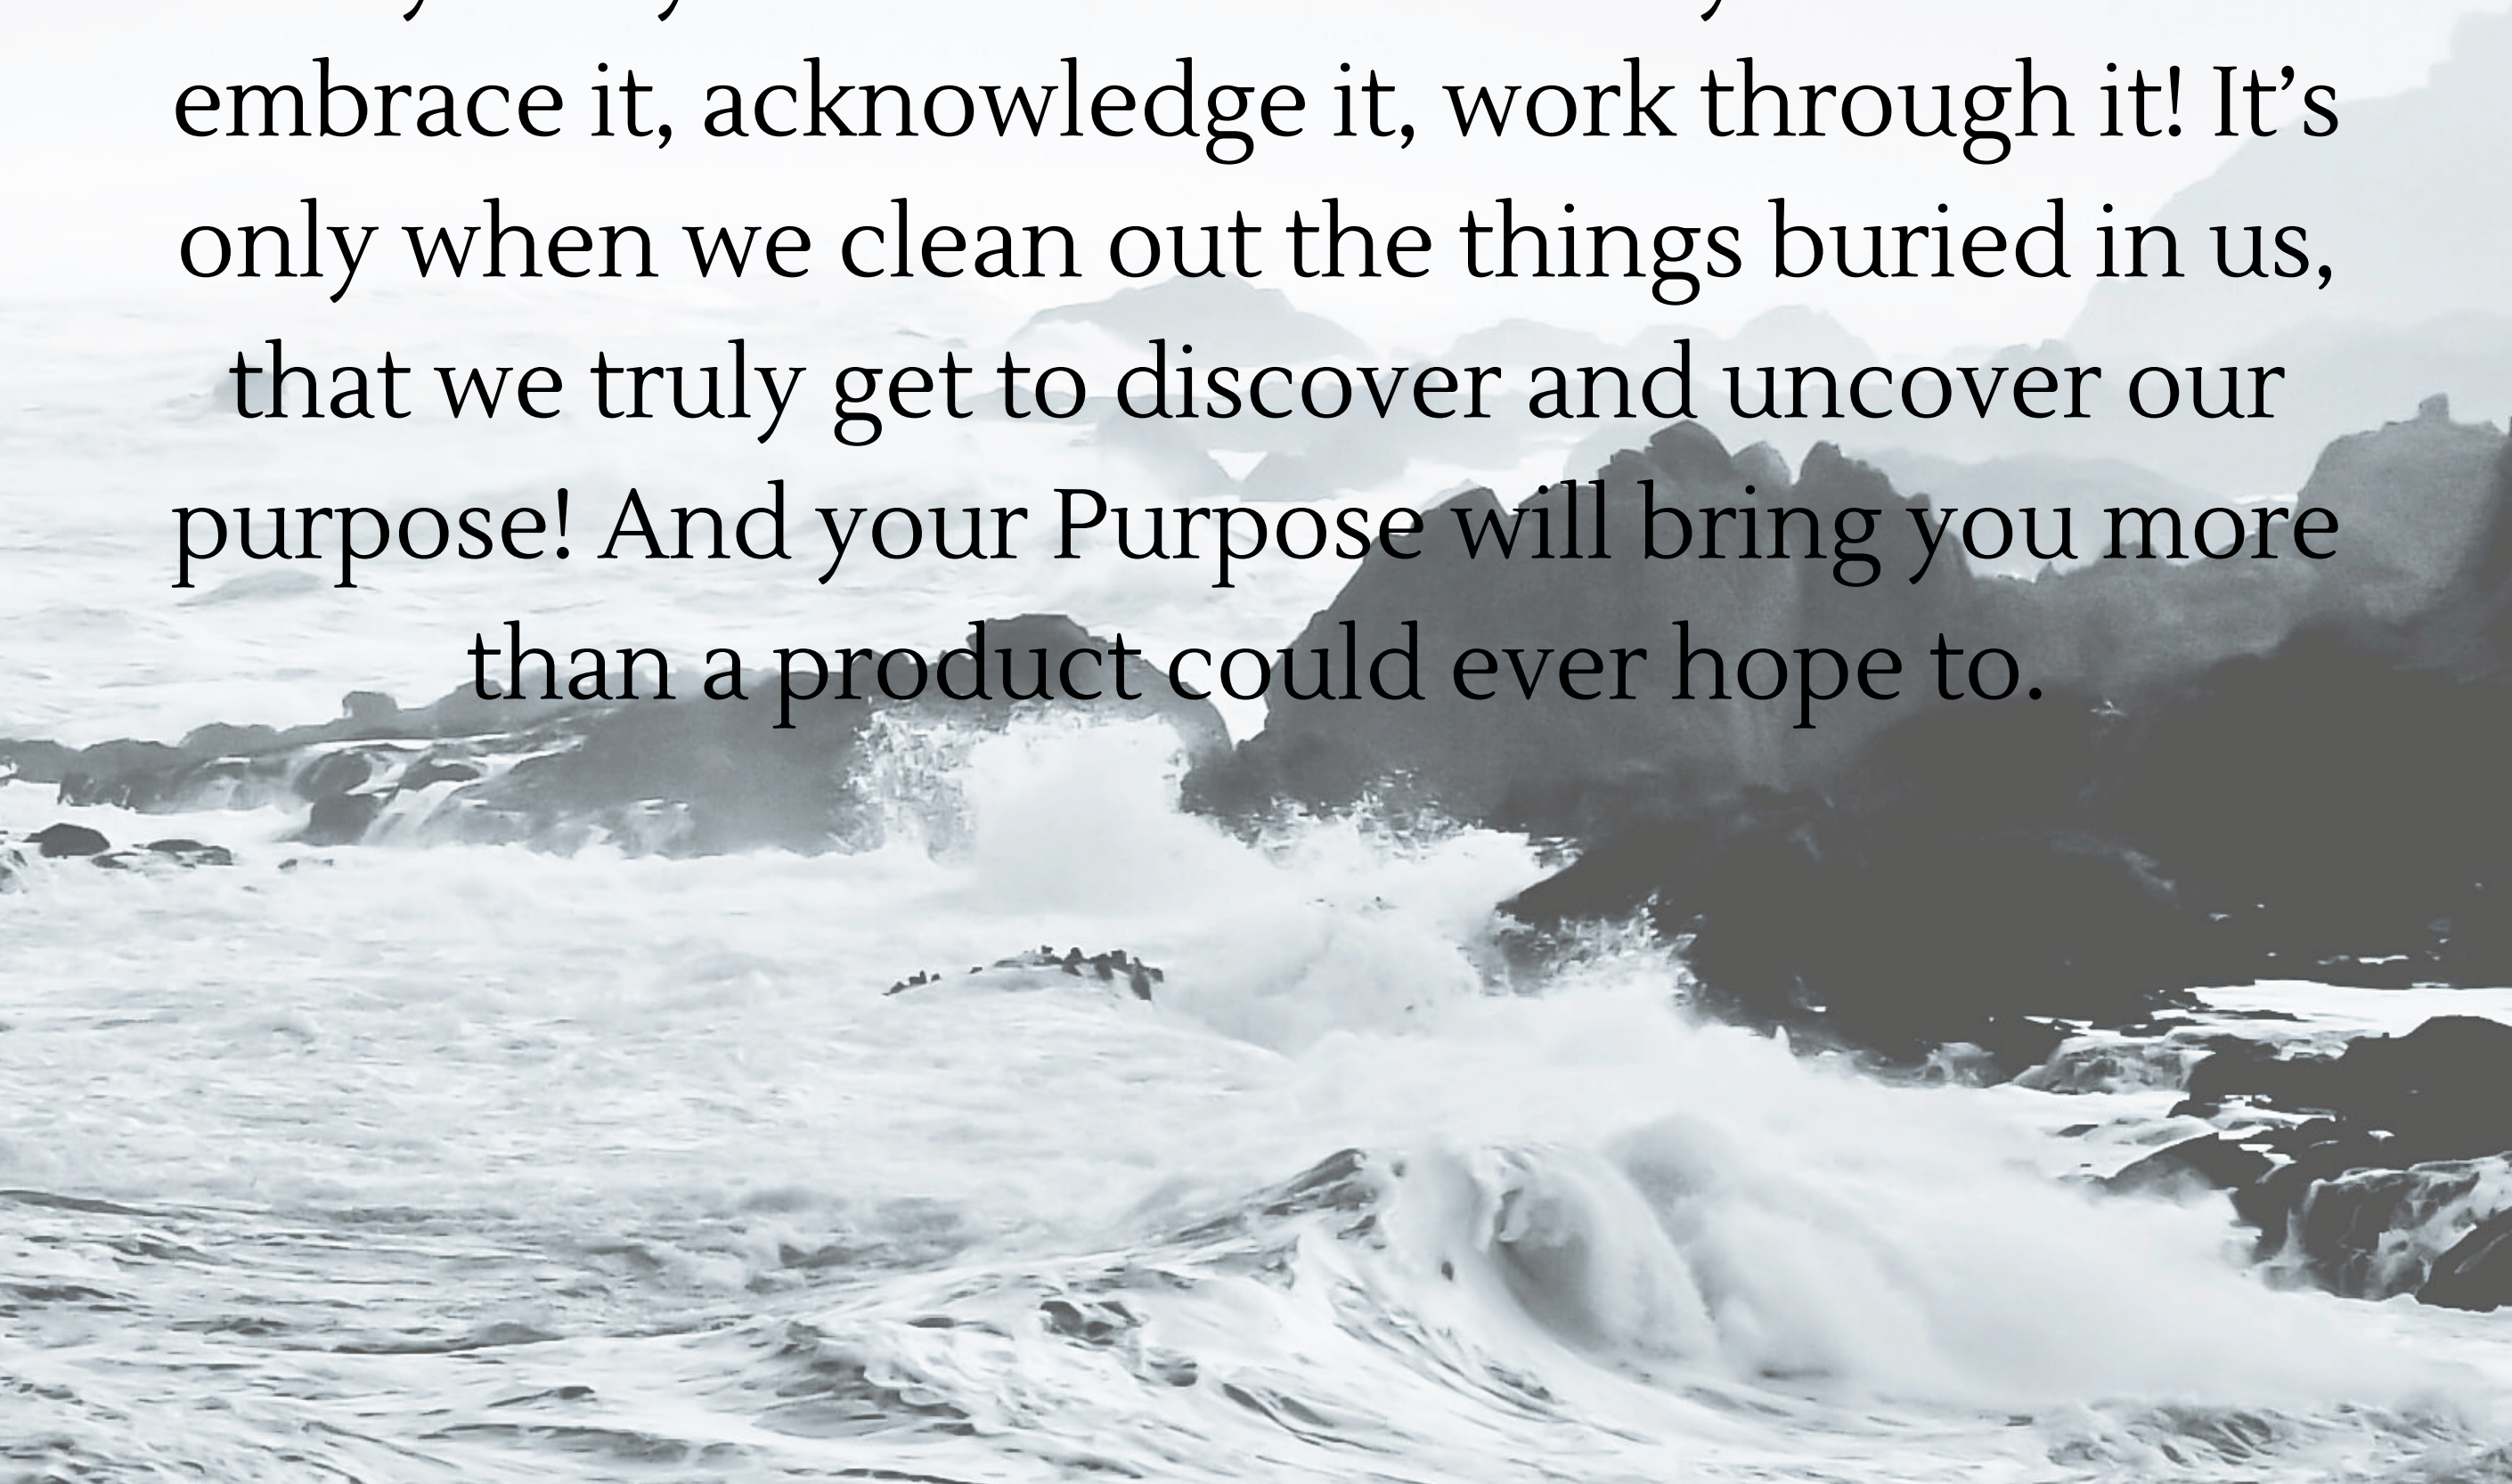

Even in this moment if you were stop everything, cutting out all of your distractions and mentally locking in to your visions, you will unlock and manifest things far greater than you ever could have imagined. Believe that what you have inside of you is a gift! Do not continue to walk around this Earth with that gift remaining unopened.

Mastering Your Mind

Pray for purpose not products.

DENIM RICHARDS

Being obsessed with “things” or “products” only breeds more of an obsession for those things. We all know that items come and go; they break, get lost, stolen, etc. Stuff is just stuff! None of it matters if the stuff that is IN you isn’t fulfilled. Sometimes we latch on to items so that we can hide from ourselves. We hope that if we accumulate enough stuff our true wants and needs will get lost amongst them. But I say let’s not shy away from our truth or bury it. Instead embrace it, acknowledge it, work through it! It’s only when we clean out the things buried in us, that we truly get to discover and uncover our purpose! And your Purpose will bring you more than a product could ever hope to.

Mastering Your Mind

Do not let your circumstances dictate what you believe.

DENIM RICHARDS

Sometimes our dreams haven't exactly matched up with our reality And thats okay! It means that you are still going through your process. As long as you are waking up every day with confidence and the persistence to continuously work towards your dreams you are victorious because you have vision, and you are moving with purpose! Fall in love with your unique process so that you can fully appreciate accomplishing your dreams!

Mastering Your Mind

Fear is ok as long as you do not allow it to hinder you from your destiny.

DENIM RICHARDS

Once you have made up your Mind and have decided to fully embrace the power of you, you may experience fear or apprehension. Its not uncommon to be fearful or apprehensive.

Actually, its quite normal. We tend to fear change and things we do not know. But you have vision! You know exactly where you are going and what you want! And of course there will be bumps in the road on the way but that's part of the process. Be excited to attack your destiny because its all yours! Uniquely designed and fitted perfectly just for you , so don't let fear take that away from you.

Mastering Your Mind

Sometimes its you that doesn't believe in you.

DENIM RICHARDS

If for most of your life you were told that the dreams, visions, or aspirations that you have were unrealistic or unattainable, it wouldn't take long for that negative energy to embed itself deep within your subconscious Mind! And as a result of this, you may simply be going through the motions of life without actually living life!

We'll start believing again. Perhaps in something small at first, just so you can build up that mental confidence that you can indeed accomplish something that you may have been told years ago you couldn't. Then build on that momentum, dream bigger and bigger. Break down those mental and emotional barriers and begin living life the way that you see fit for your destiny.

Mastering Your Mind

Don't let others depreciate the gifts God has given you.

DENIM RICHARDS

When you have an idea write it down, when you have a song sing it, when you have story write it, when you have a business idea create the plan! People are always going to have an opinion anytime you are doing something that they themselves could never envision. There is a reason why these are your gifts, and your visions. They were designed specifically for you. The only thing that matters is that you believe in you and what you want.

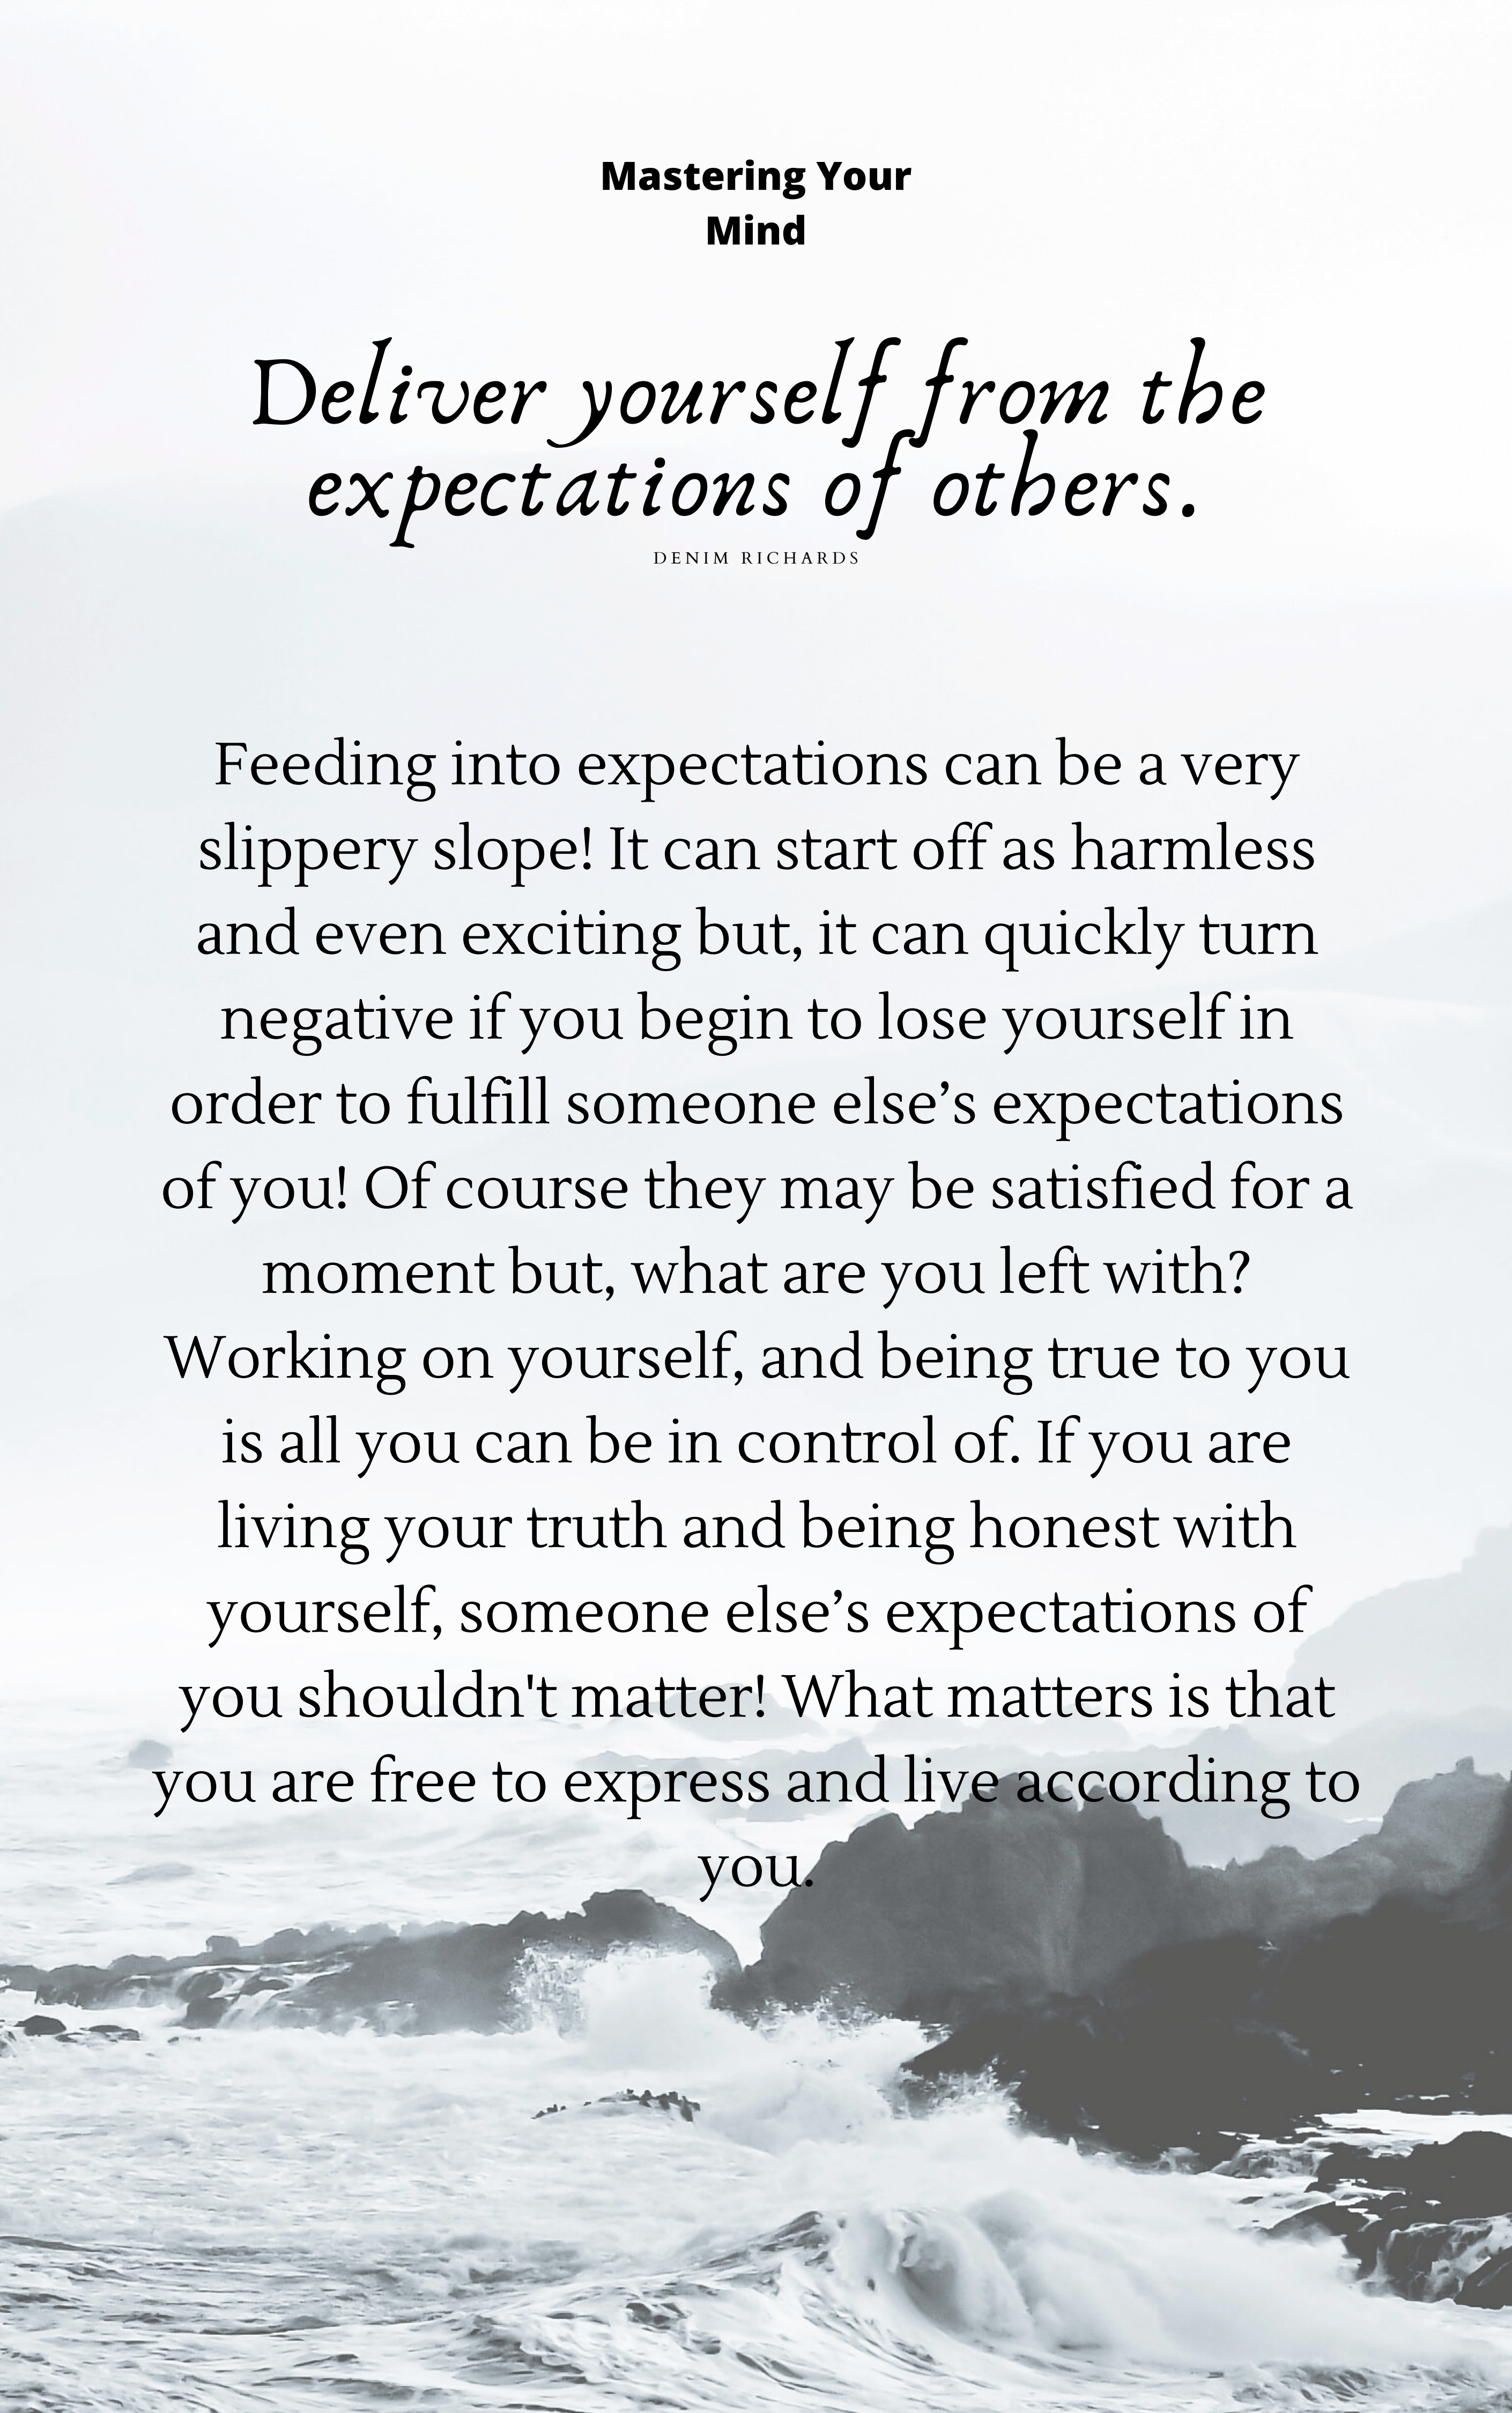

Mastering Your Mind

Deliver yourself from the expectations of others.

DENIM RICHARDS

Feeding into expectations can be a very slippery slope! It can start off as harmless and even exciting but, it can quickly turn negative if you begin to lose yourself in order to fulfill someone else's expectations of you! Of course they may be satisfied for a moment but, what are you left with? Working on yourself, and being true to you is all you can be in control of. If you are living your truth and being honest with yourself, someone else's expectations of you shouldn't matter! What matters is that you are free to express and live according to you.

A black and white photograph of a rocky coastline. In the foreground, white, frothy waves are crashing against dark, jagged rocks. The water is turbulent, with white foam visible. In the background, more rocks and a hazy horizon line are visible under a light sky. The overall mood is powerful and somewhat somber, fitting the theme of the text.

Mastering Your Mind

Do not distract yourself from your purpose.

DENIM RICHARDS

Sometimes we just have to get out of our own way. Once you've decided on what you want for your life, you have to work even harder to make sure that you keep yourself on track! You see, fulfilling your destiny requires sacrifice because, you have to be willing to do things that you were unwilling to do before, and that can be a real struggle! It may mean that you have to separate yourself from certain people because their ideology or trajectory no longer matches up with yours. It may even mean that you need to be alone for a little while so that you can come up with your game plan. This is not a punishment nor is it negative in anyway...this is the process needed in order for you to accomplish everything that you have set your Mind to.

Mastering Your Mind

What you have is Significant.

DENIM RICHARDS

Everyone has something to offer whether they realize it or not. If you take some time to really sit with yourself and focus on what you love, and what you excel in, you will quickly realize that you have much more than you ever thought! There are people all over the world, some very close to you, who could truly benefit from the gifts that you have inside of you. You may not even fully understand how significant and impactful your gifts are until you are finally ready to share them with the world.
